Happy Father's Day

Every year we faithfully celebrate "Father's Day" on the third Sunday in June. It is not just a celebration that we look forward to, but to honor and respect the wonderful role fathers play in our life and in our growth as we start growing up. Father's Day is a celebration honoring fathers and celebrating fatherhood, paternal bonds, and the influence of fathers in society.

We have honored our bonds with our fathers and their influence in our society. We don't always see or talk about the sacrifices they make to support their families. Father's day is the perfect opportunity to recognize and thank the hard-working dads and their impact in and out of the office.

We thank them for their love and encouragement in raising us and shaping us into the people we are today. Our dads are important people and they deserve the celebration! Gifts are great opportunities to express our love and affection for our fathers, but more than that would be to reassure your dad that you are proud of him and all he has done for you.

That reminds me of my own Dad whom I loved and appreciated for the wonderful person that he was. In my mind the idea of my dad as I was growing up was that of a super hero, who could do anything no matter what, if something was broken, he could fix it; a man for all seasons and inspirational in leading me to live a devout family life. It would be nice to recognize the qualities of a father on father's day by giving him a hug and telling him how much you love and appreciate him.

Besides God as our Father, we have our earthly father whom we lovingly call "Dad or Daddy." As long as we are holding the hand of our Dad we are not scared because we are safe under his care. That reminds me of a story of a little boy who went about playing on a ship when the other passengers learned that the ship was going to sink. Everyone was running around to save his/her life and when they saw the little boy happily playing and not perturbed with the news of the sinking ship, they asked him aren't you scared? The little boy replied, I am not; because my father is the captain of the ship.

For those of you who are blessed to have your fathers with you, show them your affection and do something special that your fathers would love. For those who no longer have their fathers, you can continue thanking God for them and don't forget to pray and offer masses for them as that is all that we can best do to honor their memory now.

I wish all father's "Happy Father's Day" and know that you are loved very much by your loved ones.

-Fr. Mario

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Today's feast, extending a dimension of Easter joy into Ordinary Time, reminds us that every aspect of worship centers on the mystery of God in three persons. At baptism, we are initiated into Christ and the Spirit. The Creed we recite at Mass every Sunday has its roots in the ancient celebration of baptism, when a new believer was questioned at the edge of the waters of the font with three questions: Do you believe in God, the Father, the Son, the Holy Spirit? Three questions, three affirmations, three immersions into the saving waters. Because every liturgy abounds with references to the Trinity, not only in words but in blessings by the sign of the cross, this feast was not easily accepted into the calendar. Pope Alexander in the eleventh century remarked that the liturgy is so laden with praise of the Trinity that there was no need for a special feast. Two hundred years later, while in exile in France, Pope John XXII proclaimed the feast, but it was not until 1911 that Pope St. Pius X gave it status as a solemnity.

A favorite image in art for today is the Icon of the Trinity, showing three glorious winged men seated at a table laden with bread and a cup of wine. It recalls Abraham's hospitality to angels and gives expression to the inner life of God, a life lived in relationship, a life poured out in abundance whenever Christians gather at the table of the Eucharist to give praise to the Father, in Christ, in the embrace of the Spirit.

The Teen Group is going to help pack meals at the Feed My Starving Children facility in Libertyville on Thursday, June 20, 6:00-7:30 p.m. Thirty spots have been reserved. We will leave from the SIJ parking lot at 5:15 p.m. sharp and will return about 9:15 p.m. or so as we will stop for a bite to eat after the packing time.

Parents are welcome to drive their children to Feed My Starving Children and to participate in the session, as are other members of the parish. Youth 17 years old or younger need a permission slip for the event, which you can get from the RE Office. Please note: Everyone who plans on coming (must be at least 6 years old) must reserve a place with the group. We have 30 places and 8 are already filled. To make your reservation, arrange for the permission slip and/or discuss transportation, please contact the RE Office, 847/966-1180 or sijre2004@yahoo.com by this Monday.
