COME UNTO ME

Did you ever experience the joy of being called by God and your response of coming closer to Him. It is the most important invitation anyone could accept. It is worthwhile to ponder over those instances in our own lives when people have responded. When I speak about coming closer to Jesus, it means most often through simple acts of obedience to the commandments.

Every member of the Church, upon accepting the baptismal covenant, becomes a disciple who has promised to stand as a witness of Jesus Christ at all times in any place he or she may be. The purpose of our witness is to invite people to come unto Him. All of us should be intensely interested in learning how to issue that invitation effectively. We know from experience that some will not respond. Only a few responded when the Savior Himself offered this invitation during His mortal ministry. But great was His joy in those who recognized His voice. And great has been our joy when those we have invited have come unto Him.

Personally, I feel that people should realize that when they look for happiness which they want in this life and in the world to come, it can be attained through Jesus Christ. That assurance is not easy to feel in a world in which many voices say that there is no God, that there is no sin, and that happiness is found in pleasure. But our voices can be more powerful if we can get the gift of bearing a sure witness that Jesus is the Christ and the Savior of the world. That witness will come most powerfully out of our own experiences with the Atonement of Jesus Christ working in your life. If you reflect often on how His Atonement has changed you and if you give thanks often, you will find that your witness of Him gains power to touch the hearts of others. When those you invite out of your own testimony feel that witness, they will come to accept Him as their Lord and Savior. And that acceptance, when it comes, will warm their hearts and yours.

How could any person reject the invitation of Christ and the promises He offers to those who will come to Him in complete obedience to his will? Yet a vast majority of the world's population continually rejects this great invitation. Perhaps, we need to persuade people to accept the greatest invitation ever offered and to enjoy the sweetest and most precious promises ever given, the sure promises of God through Jesus Christ His only begotten son. Know that He is the way and that we need to come unto Him.

-Fr. Mario

Are you or someone you know seeking a relationship with Christ? Are you or someone you know a baptized Christian interested in learning more about living the faith as a Catholic? Are you or someone you know a baptized Catholic who has not yet received First Communion nor been confirmed? If "yes" is your answer to any of the above, we invite you to contact Dolores Stanton, 847/966-1180 or sijre2004@yahoo.com to learn about the process which helps you discover more about Jesus, the Catholic Church and yourself. Inquiring does not mean you are making a commitment to become a Catholic. It's to provide you with information for yourself or for a loved one or friend and a chance to ask questions you might have. Please be sure to leave a message so Dolores can get back to you as soon as possible.

SPRED is a process of sharing faith and growing in friendship with our brothers and sisters in Christ who have special needs that are best addressed through symbol, liturgy and community building. Here at St. Isaac Jogues we host a SPRED Community comprised of adults 22 years of age and older. The team meets 12 times a year and the community meets 14 times. We begin in September and end in late April or early May with a break at the holidays.

Our SPRED Team has very dedicated members, but we are seeking to expand the team by adding another person or two. If you would like to share the time and faith God has given you, participate in a small faith group experience, enjoy being with and have patience with people with disabilities, we invite you to give prayerful consideration to this opportunity that will touch you in many ways. To learn more contact Dee Stanton at 847/966-1180 or sijre2004@yahoo.com or speak with one of the current SPRED
