One Family One Mission

Each Year we celebrate the World Mission Sunday. This year it is on October 22. When we reflect on the mission of Christ and His call to us, so it is our bounded duty that we be generous in our contribution to protect and promulgate this great saving act of building over one thousand local churches in Asia and Africa, the Pacific Islands, and part of Latin America and Europe. Through the work of these churches, and their witness to Christ, the poor receive practical help and experience God's love and mercy, His hope and peace.

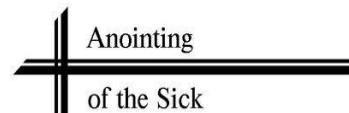

This year, we are reminded by Pope Francis that Mission is at the Heart of Christian Faith; the materials for World Mission Sunday from the Society for the Propagation of the Faith encourage an ongoing formative relationship for mission, offering portraits of today's missionaries inspired by the words of our chief missionary, Pope Francis.

It is a call to all of us of our role in the Mission of the Church of Christ, when Jesus said to the Pharisees "Repay to Cesar what belongs to Cesar and to God what belongs to God." What does that mean? Does it imply Jesus saying "pay the taxes," it would turn the common people (the people of the land) against Him. It would also turn the zealots against Him. If He said, "don't pay taxes," then the Herodian's (agents of the king) have it from His mouth that He is fomenting rebellion. If they reported something like that with grounds, the arrest would have happened sooner.

The key thing to note in regards to Jesus' answer is the relationship between the 1st century Jews and the Roman Empire. The Romans were an occupying force that had a say over every matter in Jewish life. Even the Temple was subject to this and still operating only at the mercy of the Roman officials in Israel. There were many forms of both organized and unorganized resistance to the Romans in and around the time of Jesus.

Jesus made his mind clear when he asked them for a coin and asked whose head is on it? By saying "Repay to Cesar what belongs to Cesar and to God what belongs to God." Since the coin had the image of Cesar, give him his dues whereas to God belongs your very person as we have been created in His image and likeness. As we belong to God as a family, so the mission for us is one to establish His kingdom here on earth by our monetary aid and spiritual support. Thank you for your generous support to the missions. May god bless you and your families.

-Fr. Mario

Anointing

of the Sick

Mass on Saturday
October 28th, at 1:30 p.m. in the Church.

Hospitality will follow in the Holy Family Room. All who feel they would benefit from the grace of the sacrament and the prayers of the community, whether because of illness, pending surgery, aging, grief, mental or emotional difficulties, are invited to come, along with family members and other caregivers. Members of the parish community are encouraged to come to pray with and for our brothers and sisters in need of healing, strength, and peace.

Our Prayer Shawl Ministers have been busy praying and knitting this summer. Shawls and lap blankets will be blessed at this Mass and available during refreshments. Donations appreciated.

PURGATORIAL SOCIETY

All Souls Day envelopes to enroll the names of deceased loved ones into the Purgatorial Society are at the doors of the church. Those in the society are remembered at a weekday Mass each week. Kindly place your envelope in the collection by November 2nd.

ACCESSIBLE PARKING SPACES

We bring to your attention that there are now two accessible parking spaces in the circular drive by the front of the school. A ramp leads up to the door (to the right of the school doors as you face them). This door will be open each week for you to enter for Mass.

ALL SOULS DAY REMEMBRANCE

At the Masses on All Souls Day we will include a remembrance of all those whose funerals were held here at St. Isaac Jogues Parish since last All Souls Day with a calling of their names. If you would like the names of other family members and/or friends who died in the past year to be called, please contact the RE Office, 847/966-1180 or sijre2004@yahoo.com, with the name and correct spelling by Monday, October 30th. You are welcome to bring a picture of those being remembered to be displayed during the Mass you are attending. Please note that this remembrance is in place of the annual bereavement prayer service.

THE BOOK OF LIFE

Parishioners may inscribe the names of deceased family members and friends, particularly those who died this past year, in the Book of Life, which will be located near the baptismal font beginning next weekend. Those whose funeral Masses were held here since last All Souls Day will already be inscribed in the book. We will remember all those in the Book of Life during the Universal Prayer throughout the month of November. We will also pray for those who grieve the passing of their loved ones from this life and embrace them with the hope of eternal life which we have because of our belief in the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

THE WILD GOOSE IS LOOSE: Series on the Holy Spirit

"The Wild Goose was a term that the ancient Celts had for the Holy Spirit....The Wild Goose Project is a simple attempt to invite Catholic Christians into a more profound life giving relationship with the Holy Spirit. This is a relationship marked by the love of God which breathes life into our daily existence. The Holy Spirit is not merely something relegated to Confirmation... but the Spirit desires a relationship with us that will take us on the greatest adventure imaginable; a journey to the very Heart of God."

In this time of Parish Transformation the Spiritual Life Commission invites you to participate in a three session faith formation series that can help you experience a deeper relationship with the Person of the Holy Spirit. The sessions will include viewing a dvd and discussion each time. They will be held on Mondays at 8:30 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. The schedule follows: October 30 – "God's Loved Poured Out; November 13 – "The Breath of God"; and November 27 – "Baptism in the Spirit & Fire." Each session will last an hour. Light refreshments will be served. There is no fee, but a freewill offering is appreciated. Additional sessions will be held in the future. To help us plan, please sign up in the Holy Family Room or contact the RE Office at 847/966-1180 or sijre2004@yahoo.com

+Parents/guardians are invited to join with the RE classes for Mass and an explanation of what we do and why we do it on Monday. The children are to go to class (please be on time) and the catechists will bring them to church. We will begin at 6:50 p.m.

+Baby bottles and donations for the Women's Center pro-life work should be brought to class on Monday, Oct. 30th.

+Parents/guardians are encouraged to attend the series on the Holy Spirit talked about elsewhere in this bulletin. The sessions will be finished by the time RE classes are done!

The Weekend of World Mission Sunday

Today is World Mission Sunday, a day that leads us to the heart of our Christian faith! Your generosity on World Mission Sunday supports the work of priests, religious, and lay leaders in the mission dioceses who accompany those most in need. Let this celebration of World Mission also be a day to honor the many ways we commit to missionary discipleship. As Psalm 104 says: “Send forth your spirit and renew the face of the earth!”

Your generosity is greatly appreciated by many around the world!

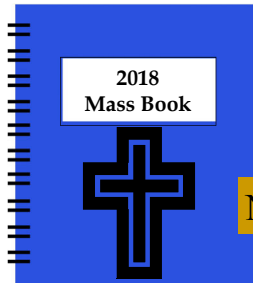

Attention ...COOKIE BAKERS

We are planning our 3rd Annual Christmas Cookie Sale Saturday and Sunday, December 9 – 10

Please remember our cookie sale when you are baking your Christmas Cookies and plan to share a few of your favorite cookies.

Your cookies will be greatly appreciated.

MANY THANKS... Feast Day Weekend was full of blessings! Thank you to Fr. Mario and Lisa Hall for the new song about our patron; to Fr. Mario & Deacon Paul for encouraging all of us to follow the example of the indomitable St. Isaac Jogues and to serve the Lord and His Church with generosity and love; to Mr. Bill Buccholtz, and the Music and other Liturgical Ministers; to all who provided, prepared, and/or served the Taste of SIJ foods, desserts, and beverages and all who attended and ate their fill; to all who participated in the Split the Pot (congratulations to winner Nancy Lisowski); to Patty and the Melts for wonderful music; to our face painters and game leaders and participants; to those who helped with Sunday's hospitality; to Team SIJ for walking and bringing our parish donation of over $450 to the CROP Walk; to our Art & Environment workers, to the Confirmation Candidates (w/the help of their catechist) who washed the Hall chairs and to the parish staff for their work on publicity and set up. One guest who came from a church in Des Plaines said, "For being a smaller parish you guys are really active!" It happens because people share their gifts of faith, time, talent, and treasure! Thank you and God bless you!
