You are welcome to bring a picture of your loved one to be displayed during the Mass.

Don't forget

Weekend

Hospitality Weekend is next weekend! Everyone is invited to stay after Mass for refreshments and conversation with fellow parishioners. At St. Martha we gather in the Café (all Masses except 7 a.m.) or by the small church after the 7 a.m. Mass. At St. Isaac Jogues we gather near the door of the Holy Family Room. If you are willing to help for 15 -20 minutes to help greet and serve after the Mass you attend, please contact Dee Stanton, 847/966-1180 or dstanton@archchicago.org this week. Thank you!

Great mystery stories and novels are often times so interesting that we do not want to put the book down or turn away from the unfolding story. Mysteries invite us in. I think of that today when I reflect on the gospel story depicting Zacchaeus trying to get to see Jesus by climbing a sycamore tree .

Jesus responds by requesting to stay at his home. God is inviting us to get a new view to ponder his great love and request of each of us . We might consider if there is something that presents us from seeking our Lord Jesus today. Perhaps we have to consider ways of getting a new vantage point.

I had a great vantage point to see all of us together at the Harvest Fest last week. Fr Carlos and Fr Dennis, Deacon's Leke, Paul and the liturgical ministers were together for Sunday Mass. I sensed a great desire for unity among us as All Saints Parish.

Thank you for your presence and prayers special thanks to the great committee leaders Dee and Deacon Paul Stanton, along with others on our Pastoral Staff : Lori Ronczka, Brad Whaley and Jennifer Mc Cabe, Jerry Sokolowski, Deacon Leke Brisku and Liz Frake and of course the many volunteers.

Another celebration occurs Sunday with our Trunk or Treat in the St. Martha parking lot.

As we look ahead to All Saints Day and All Souls Day let take time out to acknowledge the many great Saints who point the way to Christ. Please see a special Mass schedule for November 1st and 2nd.

God bless you,
Fr Tom Baldonieri

Parishioners may inscribe the names of deceased family members and friends, particularly those who died this past year, in the Book of Life, which will be available at both sites. Those whose funeral Masses were held here since last All Souls Day will already be inscribed in the book. We will remember all those in the Book of Life during the Universal Prayer throughout the month of November, as well as those who mourn. Following is a list of the deceased from All Saints Parish. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.
