NOVEMBER 20, 2022 | OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

Above Jesus on the cross there was an inscription that read,

“This is the King of the Jews.”

~ Luke 23:38

Our Lord Jesus Christ the King of the Universe

After decades of anticipation and preparation, “Prince Charles” became “King Charles.” It was an emotional moment for him after decades of hearing the British National anthem: “God save the Queen” now hearing the verse “God save the King.” We may not share in that understanding of Kingship here in the United States. We are asked to consider a different understanding of king.

This Sunday is called Our Lord Jesus Christ the King of the Universe. The gospel challenges us with yet another image to focus our attention: Christ the King’s suffering and death on the cross. Christ offers his reign through mercy and love. The penitent sinner is offered salvation through Christ the King on the cross.

He is our King who empties himself for the salvation of the world. Christ the King is our center from which we readjust our attention and redirect our actions. We turn to Christ humbly and grateful for the King who reigns forever.

The hymns “Now Thank we all our God” and “To Jesus Christ our Sovereign King” provide a good soundtrack and they lead us to praise and thanksgiving to Almighty God. We have so much to fill us with a grateful heart.

Thank you!

Thank you for participating in our second collection this Sunday for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. For more than 50 years CCHD has addressed the issues of poverty by offering assistance to communities across the United States. CCHD-funded groups deal with economic and social justice issues. An example of their outreach in “Tennessee, Statewide Organizing for Community empowerment works with government and regulatory agency to limit hazardous waste disposal in landfills and require environmental cleanup as part of the permitting process for new business operations.” United States Conference of Catholic Bishops: Office of National Collections.

The Church teaches that “the natural environment is a collective good, the patrimony of all humanity and the responsibility of everyone.” Pope Francis, Laudato Si, no.95)

Thank you for all you do. We are united in helping to make disciples, build community and inspire witness to Christ the King. May Almighty God continue to bless us in these days of reflection and time of thanksgiving.

Fr. Tom Baldonieri

Wanted to share some pictures of the church. Some pews are back, still to be placed and fastened. Carpeting will go down in the next few weeks. The narthex bathroom is nearing completion. We will be back in church soon!

PARISH OUTREACH MINISTRY

+We seek to re-gather the Parish Outreach Ministry Committee as we continue to serve those who come to our parish in their need. New members are welcome including those involved with the monthly food distribution. Members of the committee must be willing to be part of a schedule to meet with clients, regularly attend meetings, and help with Outreach Ministry special projects. The first meeting will be planned once we have some people indicate their desire to serve in this ministry. Please contact Dee Stanton, 847/966-1180.

+The following items (all non-perishable only) will be appreciated as we assist those coming to our doors. Please note that cans with pop tab lids are especially good for the homeless (no can opener): small cans of deviled ham, tuna or chicken packets, boxes of crackers, granola bars, individual fruit or applesauce cups, small jars of peanut butter, protein drinks, small cans of pork & beans, little hot dogs, hand warmer packets; also cans of fruit, rice, instant mashed potatoes, canned sweet potatoes, cans of veggies, boxes of jello and oatmeal, canned stews, hash, chicken, hams, instant coffee, hot chocolate, laundry detergent, shampoo, toothpaste, deodorant (for use by men/women).

+Donations can be dropped off at both St. Martha & St. Isaac Jogues in the donation baskets in the churches or on Wednesdays at St. Martha from 9am - Noon in the big church.

CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

TODAY our parish takes up the annual collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD). For over 50 years the mission of CCHD has been to address the root causes of poverty in the United States through the promotion and support of organizations that help people help themselves. CCHD-sponsored programs effectively break the cycle of poverty by building collective power so that people can take action on the issues that affect their lives, families and communities. Donations can also be made year-round at CCHDchicago.org. Thank you for your continued generosity and support.

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO
In Thanksgiving for Blessings Unknown

God, our protector, God our hope,
We turn to you in times of hardship,
but in our struggles and fears,
we often forget to thank you for the Grace you have given us to overcome hardship. For countless unknown blessings,
we give you thanks.

For walking with us as we have prepared for storms and for sharing our joy when disaster is averted,

For the crops that have flourished,
And the child who now knows nothing of hunger,

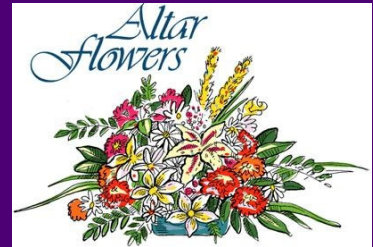

For all the nights we spent in fear,
But by your grace saw mornings filled with hope,

For all the joys of this year,
The moments when light shone through the darkness, When angels stood triumphant,
When we saw past our sin and strife
And glimpsed beyond the veil

At what the kingdom of God truly could be,
We give you thanks.

THANK YOU...

-- To those who contributed to the SIJ Giving Tree Collection last week to help the Outreach Ministry assist others especially during the holidays and coming winter months. If you did not have a chance to give a gift, please do so by the middle of December in an envelope marked "Giving Tree."
Both sites are invited to participate. Thanks!
-- To those who helped provide food items for the Thanksgiving Food boxes – RE families and families of Children's Learning World.
-- To the Good Food Pantry for their $500 check for gift cards for the Thanksgiving Food boxes. The Good Food Pantry began during COVID at St.
Cornelius to assist the efforts of other food pantries
by collecting food and monetary donations and giving it to them. It is now an outreach effort of Notre Dame High School for Boys in Niles and includes a Junior Board of area high school students. Thanks, also, to Mrs. Grillo, for asking them to contact us and for organizing the Dons each month for the food distribution. Thank you also to the Loyola Academy students, LA families, and Mr. Baier and Mrs. Kelly for their participation in/encouragement of the food distribution.
-- Special thanks to all our All Saints Parish volunteers, to Rose Marie, Julia, Marty and Catholic Charities in Des Plaines and to the Greater Chicago Food Depository for our continued partnership to provide a food bridge to the local community
these past two plus years.

Some additional notes of interest:
 As of end of Fiscal Year 2022 - SIJ had $440,000 in savings from Campaign pledges dedicated to the church renovation. We transferred $340,000 to the Archdiocese to fund our proposed work. In addition we estimate another $40-60K for unexpected expenses. Campaign contributions continue to come in from those who have not yet completed their pledges and we thank everyone who supports the renovation of our new church. We send more thanks to parishioners for their patience during the renovation. We hope to be completed and back in church by mid-December.

Overall collections continued to be lower. Many people through June, 2022 had not yet returned to Mass. Fundraising activities were difficult during the ongoing COVID challenges. Market volatility seriously impacted our savings. Paycheck Protection Loans have been fully forgiven. Without additional collections and fundraising efforts, financials will be challenging. We remain financially able to pay for our expenses at this point, but may need to begin to use savings without additional income.

This has been a very busy Fall for the RE students and their teachers! Each week, our students learn more and more about their faith from our dedicated Catechists! Here are just a few pictures of Mrs. Kohl, Mrs. Sterner, Mrs. Monsalud, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Prutus, and Mrs. Ramos's classes.

we did an activity by making mezuzahs and hung them up in our room. We also did a round of Bingo to review chapter 7 and had Fr. Tom play with us when he stopped by.

4th grade students learned the Sacrament of Baptism and the students are all proudly displaying John the Baptist baptizing Jesus.

Our Relics of St. Rita of Cascia

Rita (Margarita) Lotti was born at Rocca Porena, in the diocese of Spoleto in 1381. The first half of her life was hard and bitter. At the age of twelve, she was married to Paolo Ferdinando. The eighteen years of her marriage produced two sons and a veritable martyrdom for Rita, resulting from Paolo's violent and quarrelsome nature and the physical abuse with which he frequently rewarded his refined and prayerful wife. Shortly before his politically motivated assassination, his disposition was completely transformed, due to her patience and her prayers. For a short time, the household was an ideal one. When her two sons came of age, they vowed to avenge his death. She prayed that, somehow, God would prevent them from ever doing such a thing. God took them both from the world in their youth, fully reconciled to God.

With her husband and boys dead, Rita gave all she had to the poor and sought the life of a religious. She soon took the veil in the Augustinian convent at Cascia, where by continued entreaties, she gained admission. By mortification and prayer, she attained to great sanctity and acquired many mystical gifts. Inspired by a sermon preached by St. James of the Marches, she implored God for some participation in Christ's sufferings and was divinely accorded a thorn wound in her forehead, which festered and produced such an offensive odor that the next fifteen years of her life were spent in prayerful seclusion. Three days before her death at the age of seventy-six in 1457, she was blessed with a vision of Our Lord and his Holy Mother. When she died on May 22, her cell was filled with an extraordinary perfume, and an astounding light emanated from the wound in her forehead.

The numerous miracles which occurred after her death and her sweetly-perfumed body, which scented the entire church where she lay exposed, induced the civil and ecclesiastical authorities to install her remains in a place accessible to pilgrims, who constantly visited the bier. Rita's beatification was pronounced in 1627, in a ceremony conducted by Pope Urban VIII. Immediately prior to this declaration, the body was carefully examined and found to be as perfect as it had been on the day of her death, with the flesh still a natural color. The excellent condition of her body after a lapse of over 150 years seemed quite extraordinary, since it was never embalmed nor properly entombed. About the time of her beatification, her eyes are supposed to have opened unaided, the miraculous occurrence of which is reported to have quelled a riot. The eyes seem to have remained open for quite some time, as paintings executed during this time indicate. The body was also seen to move to one side and, after a lapse of some years, to have changed position to the other side. At the time of Rita's canonization in 1900, she was declared the patroness of impossible and desperate cases. She has always also been venerated as the patroness of abused spouses and those in difficult marriages.

St. Rita's body today appears only slightly discolored and is perfect in all its members, except for one eyebrow, which moved in its position around the year 1650, and a right cheekbone, which became dislodged. These were repaired with wax and string, as the two medical examinations of 1743 and 1892 indicate. Our new reliquary was certified in 1800 and contains relics from her hair, a fabric imbued with her blood, a linen, her dust, her ashes, a silk fabric, part of her belt, and part of her shroud. Her feast day is May 22.
