A LENTEN REFLECTION: From a homily by St. Asterius of Amasea, bishop

"You were made in the image of God. If then you wish to resemble him, follow his example. Since the very name you bear as Christians is a profession of love for men, imitate the love of Christ. Reflect for a moment on the wealth of his kindness. Before he came as a man to be among men, he sent John the Baptist to preach repentance and lead men to practice it. John himself was preceded by the prophets, who were to teach the people to repent, to return to god and to amend their lives. Then Christ came himself, and with his own lips cried out: Come to me, all you who labor and are overburdened, and I will give you rest. How did he receive those who listened to his call? He readily forgave them their sins; he freed them instantly from all that troubled them. The Word made them holy; the Spirit set his seal on them. The old Adam was buried in the waters of baptism; the new man was reborn to the vigor of grace.

What was the result? Those who had been God's enemies became his friends, those estranged from him became his sons, those who did not know him came to worship and love him. Let us then be shepherds like the Lord. We must meditate on the Gospel, and as we see in this mirror the example of zeal and loving kindness, we should become thoroughly schooled in these virtues.

For there, obscurely, in the form of a parable, we see a shepherd who had a hundred sheep. When one of them was separated from the flock and lost its way, that shepherd did not remain with the sheep who kept together at pasture. No, he went off to look for the stray. He crossed many valleys and thickets, he climbed great and towering mountains, he spent much time and labor in wandering through solitary places until at last he found his sheep. When he found it, he did not chastise it; he did not use rough blows to drive it back, but gently placed it on his own shoulders and carried it back to the flock. He took greater joy in this one sheep, lost and found, than in all the others.

Let us look more closely at the hidden meaning of this parable. The sheep is more than a sheep, the shepherd more than a shepherd. They are examples enshrining holy truths. They teach us that we should not look on men as lost or beyond hope; we should not abandon them when they are in danger or be slow to come to their help. When they turn away from the right path and wander, we must lead them back, and rejoice at their return, welcoming them back into the company of those who lead good and holy lives."

A LENT PRAYER:
St. Augustine of Hippo

Breathe in me, O Holy Spirit,
that my thoughts may all be holy.
Act in me, O Holy Spirit,
that my work, too may be holy.
Draw my heart, O Holy Spirit,
so that I love only what is holy.
Strengthen me, O Holy Spirit,
to defend all that is holy.
Guard me, then, O Holy Spirit,
that I may always be holy.

*Food

The Outreach Ministry thanks all who have been so generous in supplying the food pantry. We do remind you, however, that we can only take non-perishable foods. The following items would be helpful as we assist those coming to our doors for food: stews, chili, hash, peanut butter, jelly, cereal, rice, canned vegetables, pasta sauce, cereal, rice, shampoo, small bottles of laundry detergent, deodorant (that can be used by men or women). You may bring your donations when you come for weekday or weekend Masses or call the Rectory, 847/967-1060, M – F, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. to set up a time to drop them off. Thanks!

LENT OVERVIEW

THIS WEEK'S LENT SCHEDULE: Please remember to make reservations for Masses, Reconciliation, devotions and other activities in the church via Flocknote or by calling the Rectory, 9 a.m. – 4 p.m., Monday – Friday for all Masses and activities unless another way to make a reservation is noted.

*Sunday, Feb. 21 – Alms recipient is The Well of Mercy – Located in the West Ridge area of Chicago, it was founded in 2010 by Mary Zeien, who has visited SJL Parish during another Lenten season. The Chicago Tribune wrote that The Well of Mercy is “a home for women and their children when they need one most – when they’ve been abused, when they’ve been abandoned, when they’re broke and broken.” Over 300 single women, pregnant or with their children, have found refuge, renewal and rebirth and a family. Assistance is given through a safe shelter, education, mentoring, employment support, spirituality and more.

*Monday – Mass at 8 a.m.

*Wednesday – Mass at 8 a.m.; Free Food Distribution in SJL parking lot, 4 – 6 p.m. for those who could use the extra support in these difficult times.

*Friday – A day of abstinence: No meat or poultry products on the Fridays of Lent, and Good Friday, by those ages 14 & older; Chaplet of Divine Mercy and Stations of the Cross, 3 p.m., in church.

Twelve appointments will be available the last two weekends of March with six in the church and six in the HFR.

*Weekend of Feb. 27 – 28: Second Sunday of Lent; Extra collection to Aid the Church in Central & Eastern Europe; Almsgiving recipient: Sunday Mass at Mercy Home, which airs each Sunday at 9:30 a.m. on WGN Chicago. The televised Mass, begun at the request of Cardinal Bernardin in 1992, allow 60,000 faithful viewers (and more since the pandemic began) to share in the Eucharist each Sunday morning. It is a source of spiritual nourishment for those who are unable to leave their homes because of age, ailment, or COVID concerns to attend Mass. Mercy Home must pay for all the air time it uses so your support is needed.

Please note: We request that checks for any of the weeks' almsgiving be made out to St. Isaac Jogues Parish and one check for the total amount collected will be sent. If you are not coming to church but would like to support a particular almsgiving recipient, please mail or drop off your donation during the week. On the envelope or in the memo line please indicate to which ministry(ies)/organization(s) the alms are to be given. Thank you.

REPENT AND BELIEVE IN THE GOSPEL

Lent is the time of year we devote to scrutinizing our lives in the light of our baptism into the death and resurrection of Jesus. Today's readings are a nice shorthand catechism of what our baptized lives mean. As Noah passed through the waters of the flood to a covenant with God, so did we enter into a covenant, a promised relationship with God through our baptism.

Peter's letter gives an explicit explanation of what our baptism means: it is an appeal we make to God for a clear conscience. How do we obtain this clear conscience? The words proclaimed by Jesus immediately following his temptation show us the way: “Repent, and believe in the gospel” (Mark 1:15). It might be a good spiritual exercise to keep these readings before us throughout the entire season of Lent, a means to help us return to a life lived by our baptismal promises.

FEAST OF FAITH

Seasonal Changes for the Liturgies of Lent

Today is the First Sunday of Lent. During this season of preparation for Easter, our churches look stark and simple—no flowers at the altar, no festive banners or decorations. And our liturgies feel different, too. The organ is quiet except to accompany the singing of the assembly. The Gloria, our Sunday song of rejoicing, is not heard except on solemnities, and we will not sing the Alleluia, our joyful acclamation of praise, until the Easter Vigil. “Alleluia cannot always / Be our song while here below,” says an eleventh-century hymn. “Alleluia / our transgressions / Make us for a while forego; / For the solemn time is coming / When our tears for sins must flow” (Alleluia dulce carmen, J. M. Neale, trans.).

These changes in the liturgy will catch our attention, and make us eager for the festive outpouring of joy that will return with Easter. This year, may the stripped-away liturgies of Lent remind us to strip away what is not essential in our lives to make space for the crucified and risen One, and thus to be ready to sing “Alleluia” once again when Easter returns.
