Parish Mission
Retreat Afternoon
“Live Lent: Seeing, Confessing, Professing”
Presented by: Fr. Jeremy Thomas

*First Sunday of Lent
March 9, 2014*

TEMPTATION SUNDAY:

"Devil's Food for Thought"?

Temptation is a seduction. It is a well-baited lure in the "sea of humanity," a magnet attracting an iron will. Temptation comes from the world, the flesh and the devil. The world's "lure" is an environment of sin and bad example. The "magnet" of the world is conformity to popular pressure. Every parent has heard the argument: "But everybody is doing this or that."

The flesh wells up from the polluted "spring" of concupiscence - - the tendency to give in to perverse desires. It is the hereditary tendency to sin . . . to follow lower urges rather than right reason. The lure of the flesh is often summarized in the Seven Deadly Sins - - pride, avarice, lust, envy, gluttony, anger and sloth. The magnet of the flesh is self-indulgence and the abuse of God-given gifts of body and soul.

The Devil's own temptations are called "demonic." They have their origin through the instigation of the evil one. The devil's "method," Fr. John Hardon tells us, is "to encourage every form of avarice or selfishness, in order to lead one to pride, and through pride to all other sins."

This Sunday could well be called "Temptation Sunday" or the "Devil's Food for Thought." The Book of Genesis tells the familiar story of the Fall of Man. It is the first demonic temptation. Adam and Eve know that they are forbidden by God to eat of the fruit of the tree in the middle of the Garden of Eden, the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. The evil one tricks them. They "go for the lure." The devil contradicts the Lord's command. He assures the gullible Adam and Eve that not only will they not die, but they shall "be like gods who know what is good and what is evil." They are caught! They sin! Then they recognize only their own nakedness. They hide from God in their shame. Their own sin multiplies through the sins of their descendants.

The story of the Garden prefigures the second great demonic temptation in the Gospel account of Our Lord's Temptation in the Desert. It is the reversal of the "Fall of Man."

Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI describes the temptation as Jesus' "descent into the perils besetting mankind." Jesus is the "Second Adam." The difference is clear in its opposition. Jesus not only resists temptation but engages in a kind of rebuttal of the devil's seductive logic and his appeal to human appetites for self-satisfaction, acclaim, and earthly power. The Lord triumphs through fasting, prayerfulness, and humble service of God alone.

On this "Temptation Sunday," we have much to learn. We have a choice to be like Adam and Eve or like Christ. Lent is our desert. Our fasting and abstaining, our personal sacrifices and acts of penance are the best preparation for the inevitable "lure" and "magnet" of temptation. But of all the familiar Lenten traditions and customs, few can compare with a renewed commitment to stewardship and almsgiving. Stewardship puts into practice the Lord's parting formula for dismissing the devil:

"The Lord your God shall you worship and Him alone shall you serve."

Stewardship is essential to worship and service. It is the use of the gifts of creation to honor the Creator, and not to worship and serve ourselves. The Catechism of the Catholic Church describes Almsgiving as:

"money or goods given to the poor as an act of penance or fraternal charity."

Sacred writers insist that "almsgiving is as good as penance for sin . . . Fasting is better than prayer, but almsgiving is better than both."

In the spirit of the season, be dedicated to Charity! Charity expresses itself in many ways but none are more eloquent than stewardship and almsgiving. In that way we can triumph over the temptation to be self-sufficient. In Christ, we are called to be self-surpassing!

-Fr. Luczak

LENTEN PRAYER FOR THE WEEK

Scripture: Jesus was led by the Spirit into the desert to be tempted by the devil. He fasted for forty days and forty nights...the tempter approached...

Reflection: "The threefold test is aimed at Jesus' core: his identity, his fidelity, and the covenant God made with the Israelites....What stands in my way in accepting that I am a beloved child of God? How can I stay true to my identity as such? What fears do I need to let go of in order to live the prayer, 'Jesus, I put my trust in you?' In this holy season of lent, how deeply do we accept that God is the source and reason for our existence? (From Transform Us, O Lord! C Our Sunday Visitor, c2013)

Prayer: "A clean heart create for me, O God, and a steadfast spirit renew within me...Give me back the joy of your salvation and a willing spirit sustain in me."
From Psalm 51

Action: Attend the Parish Mission Retreat and then share with someone some of the blessings you received!

PARISH MISSION RETREAT AFTERNOON

Begin your Lenten Journey by coming to our Parish Mission Retreat Afternoon TODAY! Father Jeremy Thomas made his introduction at all the Masses today and now invites us to join him for an afternoon of Scripture, silence, personal and group reflection, and ritual before the Blessed Sacrament and concluding with Benediction.

During the retreat Desert Reflections for a Lenten People: Seeing, Confessing, Professing, Fr. Jeremy will guide us in meditations which reflect on the postures of Lent as shown by the Blind Man, the Samaritan Woman and Lazarus, Martha and Mary. He will address personal prayer life, spiritual honesty, healthy relationships, the joy of discipleship and much more.

A free will offering will be taken up for the retreat afternoon. The Spiritual Life Commission looks forward to welcoming you, your families, friends and neighbors!

Following the retreat there will be a pot luck dinner in the Holy Family Room. You can still sign up after Mass today! Even if you do not sign up ahead of time, please know that you are welcome to stay!

Please note that we will host a session on Monday, March 10 at 9:30 a.m. and show a video of the retreat talks and the closing prayer ritual. So if you are unable to come Sunday, consider coming Monday and allow yourself to share in the experience.

LOOKING AHEAD...

Labyrinth Walk, Thursday, 3/20, 6-8:30 p.m. in the Holy Family Room and 8:30 a.m. – 8:30 p.m. on Friday, 3/21. Take a meditative walk on a canvas maze patterned after that in the Chartres Cathedral. Ministers of Care will be on hand to help guide you in the experience. We do ask that you walk the maze either in stocking feet or with provided booties over your shoes.

Gorskie Zale, the Bitter Laments, will be sung in Polish and English in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament on Sunday, March 23rd, 3 p.m. in Church. Led by Fr. Jason Torba and members of The Lira Singers, it will include hymns which consider the passion & Death of Our Lord, lamentations which express sorrow for sins, and sympathetic conversations of the soul with the Blessed Mother. All are welcome!

Letter of Pope Francis to Families
February 02, 2014

Dear Families,

With this letter, I wish, as it were, to come into your homes to speak about an event which will take place at the Vatican this coming October. It is the Extraordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops, which is being convened to discuss the theme of “pastoral challenges to the family in the context of evangelization”. Indeed, in our day the Church is called to proclaim the Gospel by confronting the new and urgent pastoral needs facing the family.

This important meeting will involve all the People of God – bishops, priests, consecrated men and women, and lay faithful of the particular Churches of the entire world – all of whom are actively participating in preparations for the meeting through practical suggestions and the crucial support of prayer. Such support on your part, dear families, is especially significant and more necessary than ever. This Synodal Assembly is dedicated in a special way to you, to your vocations and mission in the Church and in society; to the challenges of marriage, of family life, of the education of children; and the role of the family in the life of the Church I ask you therefore, to pray intensely to the Holy Spirit, so that the Spirit may illumine the Synodal Fathers and guide them in their important task. As you know, this Extraordinary Synodal Assembly will be followed a year later by the Ordinary Assembly, which will also have the family as its theme.

In that context, there will also be the World Meeting of Families due to take place in Philadelphia in September 2015.

May we all, then, pray together so that through these events the Church will undertake a true journey of discernment and adopt the necessary pastoral means to help families face their present challenges with the light and strength that comes from the Gospel.

I am writing this letter to you on the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord in the Temple. The evangelist Luke tells us that the Blessed Mother and Saint Joseph, in keeping with the Law of Moses, took the baby Jesus to the temple to offer him to the Lord, and then an elderly man and woman, Simeon and Anna, moved by the Holy Spirit, went to meet them and acknowledged Jesus as the Messiah (cf. Luke 2:22-38). Simeon took him in his arms and thanked God that he had finally “seen” salvation. Anna, despite her advanced age, found new vigor and began to speak to everyone about the Baby. It is a beautiful image: two young parents and two elderly people, brought together by Jesus. He is the one who brings together and unities generations! He is the inexhaustible font of that love which overcomes every occasion of self-absorption, solitude, and sadness. In your journey as a family, you share so many beautiful moments: meals, rest, housework, leisure, prayer, trips and pilgrimages, and times of mutual support... Nevertheless, if there is no love then there is no joy, and authentic love comes to us from Jesus. He offers us his word, which illuminates our path; he gives us the Bread of life which sustains us on our journey.

Dear families, your prayer for the Synod of Bishops will be a precious treasure which enriches the Church. I thank you, and I ask you to pray also for me, so that I may serve the People of God in truth and in love. May the protection of the Blessed Mother and Saint Joseph always accompany all of you and help you to walk united in love and in caring for one another. I willingly invoke on every family the blessing of the Lord.

From the Vatican, 2 February 2014
Feast of the Presentation of the Lord.

Guild 5 thanks everyone who helped with the Carson's Community Day event last weekend including those who purchased the booklets and shopped as well as those who worked and sold to make this event successful. Carson's Community Day was a huge success thanks to St. Isaacs! Thank you for your support!

COMMUNITY
DAYS 2014

Adults interested in being baptized, received into the Catholic Church or completing their Catholic Sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation are invited to call Dee Stanton, 847/966-1180 for more info.

Religious Education

- First Grade will have a forgiveness service during class on Monday in preparation for Easter.
- Sixth Grade will have a presentation on Passover and the Seder with Ms. Sharon Sloan at 6:45 p.m. in their class. Interested parents are welcome to come!
- Students are reminded to pray for, learn about and help people around the world through the Catholic Relief Services Rice Bowl Project. Perhaps their gift will come from sacrificing part of their allowance or not going to a movie or the family effort of a second meatless meal during the week and putting the money saved into the rice bowl. You can work on this special project through early April. Rice bowls are to be returned to class on Monday, April 14th.

Pepper and Egg Sandwiches

Come each Friday during Lent starting March 7th to pick up Pepper and Egg Sandwiches that you have ordered. They will be ready after 4:00PM. We will be in the Holy Family Room until 6:00PM. Cost same as last year at $3.50 per sandwich. Please try to order in advance by calling John at 847-966-9679. Walk ins also welcome.

Over the next 8-10 weeks, the Boy Scouts of Troop 228 will be conducting a service project at St. Isaac Jogues to help re-stock and re-organize the parish library. A book drive will be held in the Holy Family Room in the Sundays of March 9 and March 16 between and after all Masses to help collect the necessary reading materials to help fill the library. The Scouts are looking for lightly used religious works and spiritual readings. If you have any books you would like to donate, please drop them off at the Scouting Table in the Holy Family Room on one of the two listed dates.

The Scouts are looking for the following: Bibles, Catechisms, Works of Saints, Papal Encyclicals, Religious Children's Books, Educational Books/Essays, Religious Fiction, Expository Works on the Faith, Books on the History of the Church, etc.

Notes from your Parish Pastoral Council

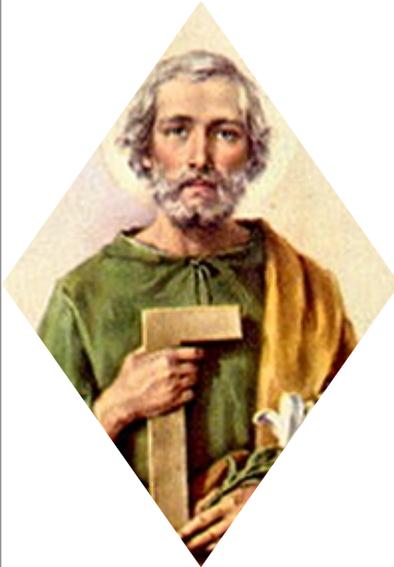

The Parish Pastoral Council met on Thursday evening 2/27. The following topics were discussed.

- "To Teach Who Christ Is" campaign - reviewed outcome of parish meeting on 2/20, asked for Contact committee volunteers and discussed our Parish case.
- Discussed Parish Leadership day experiences and observations.
- Kathy Lord reported on meeting of the Deanery and APC.
- Reviewed draft of PPC Operational Guidelines Bylaws
- Commission news

Our next meeting will be in March - Ed Segraves

The St. Isaac Jogues Men's Club will celebrate
St. Joseph's Day with a St. Patrick's Day
Corned Beef & Cabbage Dinner
Prepared by our
Italian Chef, John Affatati
Wednesday, March 19th.

A Lenten Mass will be celebrated at 6:30 p. m. by Fr. Andrew Luczak and Deacon Paul Stanton.

A meeting for nominations of officers for the Upcoming 2014-2015 year and the Man of the Year award will be discussed. Also, a collection for St. Vincent De Paul will be held to help the needy.

All men of the parish are invited. Come have an enjoyable evening meeting new and old friends.

PARISH LIFE COMMISSION

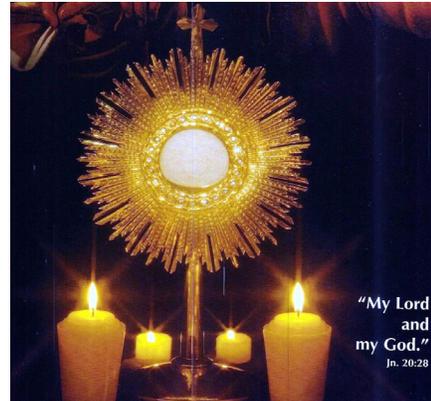

The Parish Life Commission will meet at 7 p.m. on Tuesday, March 11th.

HAPPINESS

Happiness is a mystery, like religion, and should never be rationalized.

—G. K. Chesterton

Adoration Of Jesus In
The Most Blessed Sacrament

A Holy Hour will be offered each Thursday evening during Lent in Church before the Blessed Sacrament from 7:00-8:00 p.m.
March 13th, 20th, 27th
April 3rd, April 10th

Adoration is a time for praising, adoring, blessing, giving ourselves to God and thanking Him for all that He is for us and for all we are to become through Him. It is truly "prayer of the heart".

The prayer is three-fold: a chant; a prayerful meditation which will be offered by Deacon Rod: SILENCE - a short meditative time for each of us to adore Christ, speak our own words to Him or simply listen for His voice.

Give a special gift to Jesus this Lent.
Offer Him an hour of Your time
these Thursdays during Lent.

ALL ARE WELCOME!

ST. JOSEPH TABLE

All are invited to share in the St. Joseph Table next Sunday, March 16th! This tradition gives glory to God, honors St. Joseph, encourages community building and assists the poor and needy. While it is a meatless table we will have pasta (marinara and con sardi), fish, egg dishes, vegetables, fruits, breads, sweets, and beverages. All the food will have been donated through the generosity of parishioners and local businesses. There is no charge to come and eat at the St. Joseph Table. Donations will be gratefully accepted to help our St. Vincent DePaul Ministry reach out to those in need.

If you made a promise of food (meatless of course) and it does not need to be refrigerated overnight, please bring it to the Parish Hall on Saturday, March 15th, between 9:30 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. Otherwise all other food donations need to be brought to the parish Hall on Sunday, March 16th, from 7 – 10:30 a.m. in order to finish final preparations of the table. We will have runner near the holy Family Room on Sunday to carry the food in for you, if you would like. Because we will be making preparations on Sunday morning, no one will be able to come and view the table until it is time for the blessing and serving of food. Food donations will be taken at the door at the bottom of the stairs.

The St. Joseph Table celebration begins with the Noon Mass on March 16th, followed by the blessing of the Table and the serving of the food, 1:30-4:30 p.m. The line to come down to the Table will form in the holy Family Room as only so many can be served at one time. Everyone's patience and cooperation will be appreciated! Kindly follow the guidance of our Men's Club and please know that there is also an elevator available to come down to the Parish Hall if you need that assistance.

Donations of food are still welcome, particularly vegetables (fried, roasted) and meatless dishes other than pasta. Helpers are still welcome for Sunday and we are in need of 1-2 Nesco Roasters. Please call Dee Stanton, 847/966-1180 or Santa DiFranco, 847/966-1802, to offer your gift of food and/or time. Grazie!

Consider

© Alley Photography/Veer

Have you found yourself as a parent reacting without thinking? Maybe you had a fit of anger. Maybe you sulked. Maybe you found yourself blurting out words your mother used to say that you vowed would never come from your lips. Such outbursts are often caused by anxiety. When that happens, it's time to consider. You might ask, "Consider what?" Take Jesus' advice and "consider the lilies of the field" and the "birds of the air" who trust in the Lord and are taken care of by God. Jesus contrasts anxiety and faith. In the Kingdom of God, faith banishes fear and trust diminishes anxiety.

Advertisers and newscasters bombard us with messages meant to increase our anxiety. Instead, listen for the voice of Jesus who invites you to share in his life of fullness. —Tom McGrath

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Today, we know more about the beginnings of Lent than our ancestors did. We know that Lent is first of all about baptism, and secondly that it is about the desire of all the baptized to renew the power and potential of that sacrament at Easter. For centuries, this deep truth was largely obscured, but today documents have come to light to reshape the Church's thinking and practice.

One source, discovered in the 1880s, is the pilgrim diary of a Spanish nun, Egeria, writing her sisters a detailed travelogue of a fourth-century sojourn in Jerusalem during Holy Week. She describes in vivid detail her participation in liturgies that are close cousins of our own Holy Week prayer, from a festive procession with palms to a procession to the cross. Her greatest delight is in the huge number of elect: men, women, and children who experience a time of deep retreat and identification with Christ's cross, guided by the bishop and supported by their godparents' constant nurture. The discovery of Egeria's diary proved to be a moment of grace for the Church; after a long period of "ecclesial amnesia," we know at last that baptism is really the work of a whole community of faith, convened by God.

THE PASSION OF CHRIST

The Roman Catholic theatrical prayer group Wieczernik "Cenacle", a non-profit theatrical organization, at St. Hyacinth's Basilica in Chicago will present the Passion of Christ at two local parishes. They will perform at St. John Brebeuf Parish on Sunday, March 23, at 1:30 p.m. (English) and 7 p.m. (Polish). They will also perform on Saturday, March 29, at St. Catherine Laboure Parish in Glenview at 6 p.m. (English). It is the story of the life of Jesus filled with compassion, service and salvation with all passages taken from Scripture, played out by a cast of non-professional actors and accompanied by moving music and original set design. Free will offerings greatly appreciated.
