The Ascension of the Lord

May 12, 2013

The Mother of God: “Why doesn’t she laugh?”

“I am the Mother of God, and this is Himself, and He is the boy you will all be wanting at last.”

- G.K. Chesterton

I always look forward to J.S. Paluch’s fine art, full color bulletin covers. When I saw today’s Mother’s Day Madonna and Child, I have to admit I was disappointed. “Who painted that?” I grumbled. After Wikipedia and four pages from the Free Online Database, my question was answered. The artist was Pierre Mignard (1612-1695). The Madonna and Child was appropriately entitled, La Vierge aux raisins --- The Virgin with grapes. I learned that Pierre Mignard, a gifted and commercially successful French painter, had been greatly influenced by his stay in Italy. Because he was clever at imitation and flattery, he earned the patronage of princes, cardinals and three popes --- Urban VIII, Innocent X and Alexander VII. He became known as “Le Romain,” the Roman.

Mignard would attain even greater renown on his triumphal return to France in 1658. He entered a charmed circle --- an elite that included Molière, Racine and La Fontaine. He was a painter of the highest society. He did ten portraits of Louis XIV himself and royal wives and mistresses. His style was fashionably reliant on classical knickknacks and over-worked draperies. His religious works included an overly ambitious fresco of two hundred colossal figures in Paradise in the cupola of the Val-de-Grâce chapel. He was rushed. The results were very mediocre! Earlier, in Italy, he produced many oratory pictures. His Madonnas were popular with the devout, but criticized for their conscious grace and precisosity. His Madonnas were known as mignards. It is to this category that we might carelessly consign The Virgin with Grapes. We might subtitle this mignard, Bambino Peek-a-booing! All right, it does have the appeal of what real babies do. It has humor....Jesus is cute.

What saves the painting for me I found in a short essay by G.K. Chesterton. Chesterton recounts a story he heard in County Donegal. It described an apparition of the Blessed Mother in the rocky wastes of that scenic part of Ireland. A beautiful peasant woman carrying a child, when asked her name announces:

“I am the Mother of God, and this is Himself, and He is the boy you will all be wanting at last.”

When I look at the lovely Madonna and the Peek-a-booing Bambino, it may be more than cute. It may lead us to question, “Did Jesus do that?” Jesus was divine and human. Could he not play games, hiding under his mother’s veil? Could he even have had too many grapes? Mignard’s graceful Madonna does reflect real motherhood. She is patient with what may disturb her composure or wrinkle her veil. Yes, it recalls Chesterton:

“...this is Himself, and He is the boy you will be wanting at last.”

I have only one, last question about Mignard’s tribute to motherhood---

“WHY DOESN’T SHE LAUGH?”

- Fr. Luczak

ASCENSION

Today we celebrate Christ's ascension into heaven and his commissioning of the disciples to carry on his mission in the world. First we hear Luke's description of those events in the opening verses of the Acts of the Apostles. Next we hear words of encouragement and guidance from the Letter to the Ephesians. Finally we hear Mark's account of the Ascension, foretelling the mighty words and acts the Christian community would do in Jesus' name. Together these scriptures give us a vision of the mission of the church of Jesus Christ ---- a mission statement of sorts. Like mission statements in our parishes and corporations, this mission statement can help us set priorities and focus our activities. It can guide and support us as we strive to continue Christ's messianic mission on earth.

PRAYER TO THE HOLY SPIRIT

As we prepare to celebrate the Solemnity of Pentecost and the conclusion of the Great Fifty Days, all are encouraged to pray to the Holy Spirit for blessing upon the Church, our parish and the efforts of all the baptized to witness to gospel truths. Everyone is asked to pray this novena prayer until we gather to give praise for the gift of the Holy Spirit and the birth of the Church next weekend.

Be present, be present, Holy Spirit of comfort and consolation, and Inspire and guide us into all truth, as Jesus promised.

Be present to us in wind and fire as you were to your friends at Pentecost and give fresh life to our gospel witness, now and forever. Amen.

WOMEN'S CENTER MOTHER'S DAY FLOWER SALE TODAY

Celebrate the special lady/ladies of your life with a bouquet of flowers and support women and their babies who are aided by the pro-life efforts of The Women's Center. Rose, carnation, and mixed floral bouquets are on sale in the Holy Family Room after all Masses today. Your purchase will help them continue to provide spiritual and material services (including ultra sounds to see their living child in the womb) to women who are pregnant and oftentimes have no one or no where else to turn. Thank you for your purchase and your prayers!

Thank You

More donations came in last weekend for the Mother's Day Project for our Sharing Parish. We had, however, already made up the bags and brought them to Maternity BVM Parish. However, we made some more bags with what we received last weekend and we brought them to the Women's Center on Cicero for them to distribute to some of the moms they assist. We also brought them 12 small blankets made by our Prayer Shawl Ministry. Thanks to all for their donations, prayers and busy hands!

Religious Education

RE Families and interested parishioners are invited to our year-end prayer service on Monday at 7:00 p.m. Mrs. Burdi's First Grade Class will help lead our prayer. Following the service all the students will return to their classes for celebrations and to receive their evaluations. Dismissal will be at the usual time of 8:00 p.m.

Registration for the 2013-2014 Religious Education Program for Kindergarten through Confirmation Year II begins this Monday, May 13th, at 7:30 p.m. in the Holy Family Room. By now, families currently in the RE Program should have received a registration letter and form in the mail. Please register that night or by June 15. After that date you are still welcome, but there will be a $25 late fee. New families are welcome to come that evening and will be asked to fill out a family form and a student form for each child. You will also need to bring a copy of each child's baptismal certificate if they were not baptized here at St. Isaac Jogues.

Kindergarten classes meet on Sundays, 10:30-11:30 a.m. and Grs. 1 – Confirmation Year II meet on Mondays, 6:45-8:00 p.m. Families are strongly encouraged to have their children come each year as no one year suffices in providing what is important for a strong faith foundation. Students preparing for sacraments must attend for the two immediate years prior to receiving each sacrament. If families have children with special needs who have not received their sacraments, we would be happy to meet with you and discuss options. There is tuition, book fees and sacrament fees (as applicable). Families with financial concerns are encouraged to talk with us as no child is denied religious education because of finances. All are welcome!

MINISTERS OF CARE MEETING

Ministers of Care will have a dinner meeting on Thursday, May 30th, at 6:30 p.m. in the Holy Family Room. Following dinner Pat Kellen is returning to give the presentation, "Praying in Color". She says no artistic talent is needed to come to the talk! RSVP to the RE Office by Friday, May 24th, 847-966-1180. We look forward to being with you.

JUNE 9 CHICAGO-WIDE ECUMENICAL SUNDAY

On Sunday, June 9th, St. Isaac Jogues Parish has the wonderful opportunity to join with other Catholics and Christians in the Chicago area at St. Thomas Syro-Malabar Catholic Cathedral in Bellwood for the 13th Annual Ecumenical Prayer Service for Christian Unity. Refreshments and conversation will be from 4-5 p.m. followed by the Prayer Service, 5-6 p.m. Father Luczak and several parishioners went last year and thought it was a fine afternoon!

It is our plan to provide a bus to St. Thomas if enough people are interested. The Cathedral is located at 5000 St. Charles Road in Bellwood. We would leave about 2:45 p.m. and return about 7 p.m. A donation of $5 would be asked for the bus (if you are able). Everyone is invited and encouraged to experience this special observance with other followers of our Lord Jesus Christ! Please sign up in the Holy Family Room any weekend this month beginning next weekend or call the RE Office, 847/966-1180, by Tuesday, May 28th.

ECUMENICAL/INTERRELIGIOUS COMMITTEE WILL MEET ON TUESDAY, MAY 21 AT 7 PM
AT THE RECTORY.

SPIRITUAL LIFE COMMISSION

The Spiritual Life Commission will meet this Tuesday at 7:00 p.m. in the RE Office. Please note we are starting earlier because we have several things to discuss for the upcoming year. Remember to bring your calendars. Agendas were mailed out.

PRAYER SHAWL MINISTRY

The Prayer Shawl Ministry will meet Thursday at 10 a.m. in Rm. 6 of the school (enter through Holy Family Room). Please be working on your shawls as our supply has been greatly used to gift others!

FEAST OF OUR LADY OF FATIMA

As you see by the font today, we are blessed to have a statue of Our Lady of Fatima, on loan to us by a friend of Fr. Luczak. Monday is the Feast of Our Lady of Fatima. During the 8 a.m. Mass, we will pray the Litany of Our Lady of Fatima and sing the song in her honor under that title. After the 8 a.m. Mass, everyone is invited to the Holy Family Room for a little coffee and to watch a presentation by Fr. Andrew Apostoli, C.F.R., that he gave at a conference in April, on "Our Lady's Message at Fatima." Fr. Apostoli is the co-founder of the Franciscan Friars of The Renewal and a regular host on EWTN. He is the Vice-Postulator for the cause of canonization of Archbishop Fulton Sheen. He is active in preaching retreats, teaching, spiritual direction and writing books. Fr. Apostoli is a world expert on the Virgin Mary's 1917 appearances in Portugal. All are welcome!

Year of Sunday Mass Question of the Week

At his Ascension, Jesus said to his apostles and he says to us, "You are witnesses."

How does my sharing his death and resurrection in the Mass encourage and strengthen me to share him with others?

Mother's Day Collection

Protecting and helping others by donating to Catholic Charities is an impressive part of the Mother's Day celebration at this parish. Thank you. Contributions can still be made online at www.catholiccharities.net/donate or mailed to 721 N. LaSalle St.
Chicago, IL 60654

Word of Life

Jesus didn't come to bring death, but rather, the death of hatred, the death of fighting, the death of calumny, that is, killing with the tongue. Jesus did not come to bring death, the death that He suffered for defending life. Jesus came to bring life and to bring abundant life, and he sends us out, carrying that life, but he tells us: "Care for it!" Because there are people who ... aren't involved in the Gospel: [who are part of] the culture of death. ... life interests them insofar as it is useful, insofar as it has some kind of utility and if not, it doesn't interest them. And throughout the world, this weed has been planted, of the culture of death.

~ Most Rev. Jorge Bergoglio, former Cardinal Archbishop of Buenos Aires, now Pope Francis, homily at Mass on August 31, 2005

KNOW THE MASS, ONE WORD AT A TIME

Support

Several times in the Mass, the priest addresses us or talks to God about us in a way that reminds us that we are not there individually or alone but rather together and even bonded in a special way.

"Brothers and sisters, let us acknowledge our sins, and so prepare ourselves..." "Pray, brothers and sisters, that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father." "Listen graciously to the prayer of this family, whom you have summoned before you..."

We are at Sunday Mass, and we are not alone. And we are not just there, as if we had happened to board the same bus together. We are gathered as God's family and the Body of Christ. We come not just for our own personal spiritual benefit, as important as that might be, but because we support each other on the journey to God. And we must support each other because we do belong to the same family.

A THOUGHT FOR THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD...

I will give you the crown of life...

"Another distinctive custom, this one in the East, was the practice of placing garlands of flowers on the heads of the newly baptized.

Probably borrowed from secular life, it was widespread already in the fourth century, so its origin was probably much earlier. In secular life, garlanding was a sign of victory, triumph and joy (e.g., winning sports events in the arena, etc.). The same idea was transferred to the spiritual realm where the garland signified the heavenly crown of glory and incorruptibility, the crown of invincible faith, of strength and of justice, imparted through baptism."

--Casimir Kucharek

Treasures from Our Tradition

The mystery of the Ascension has to do with holding in tension a sense of God's nearness, along with the burden caused by apparent signs of absence. The risen Jesus says to Mary Magdalene, "Do not cling to me," perhaps pointing out to her that his physical presence to the disciples was time-bound and temporary. It was a gift for their transformation, and after forty days, he vanished from their sight and hearing, though never out of their consciousness.

They do not mourn at his going this time: there is no trace of the disciples who hid in fear at his crucifixion, no sense of the women who wept softly as they carried ointments to the tomb through the dewy morning light. Instead, the scriptural accounts show them full of joy, comforted by his promise to be with them forever, and open to the Spirit's power. They are joyful, energized, aware, and united with one another in love. They seem to grasp an awareness that if the mission to the whole world was a serious one, then the presence of the Risen Christ could not be pinned down to any one place or time, but had to be always and everywhere completely available. All peoples, all times, all cultures were opened to receive him in this moment of the Ascension. The energy of this feast is drawn not from absence, but renewed and deeper presence.

The Women's Center

During the month of May we honor our heavenly mother and our earthly mothers. At the Women's Center we rejoice that since last Mother's Day, with the assistance of our counseling, spiritual, and material help, we enabled over 1,000 mothers to bring their babies into the world. They send us beautiful "thank you" letters. We thank you for your help.

We need volunteer sonographers who are already certified or nurses trained in limited ultrasound. For information call Kathleen at 708-425-0707. Volunteers are also needed to help with sorting donations and assisting clients in our Chicago Family Resource Room on Saturdays from noon until 3:00 pm. To help, email jkeenan@womens-center.org or call Jackie at 773-794-8807.

We are happy to pass on your used baby equipment to mothers who cannot afford to buy it. Our need is great because we have two distribution centers. We have a waiting list for 5 high chairs, 6 strollers, 2 double strollers, 8 infant car seats, 3 bassinets, 5 baby swings, 6 bouncers, 7 pack n plays, 3 fixed side cribs, 6 crib mattresses and 3 toddler beds. A donation receipt for tax purposes is available. It will be a great help if you can deliver these to us. For our address, or if a pick-up by volunteers is needed, please call 773-794-1313. Baby formula and diapers in sizes 1 and 5 are needed. We also need older children's clothing, especially for boys, sizes 7 to 12. These must be delivered to us unless accompanied by baby furniture.
