Reflections from Fr. Dennis

Dear Friends and Fellow Parishioners

What is the first liturgical abuse recorded in the New Testament? 1.) the use of unleavened bread in celebrating the Eucharist? 2.) Insufficiently screening who is worthy to receive Holy Communion? Or 3.) Allowing rich Christians to share a pot-luck dinner but only with other rich Christians, thereby forcing the poor Christians to share a more modest pot luck dinner with other poor Christians? The answer is the last one, described very forcefully by St. Paul in 1 Corinthians 11:17-22, written around the year 56.

The feast of Corpus Christi began to be observed in what is now Belgium in 1246. It was extended to the universal Church by Pope Urban IV in 1264 in order to strengthen belief about Christ's Real Presence in the Eucharist. In 1215, at Lateran Council IV, the Catholic Church had already agreed to use the term "transubstantiation" to describe the Real Presence. This means that in the Eucharist, the substance of ordinary bread and wine has been replaced by the substance of Christ's Body and Blood. This leaves unchanged the accidents of size, taste, smell, color, and so on.

People receiving their First Holy Communion do not have to be able to explain all of this. They must, however, know that what they are receiving - or more accurately, WHO they are receiving - is not simply bread and/or wine. They show a reverence after the consecration that they did not show before the consecration. Their "Amen" reflects this, but makes sense only in lives that are radically transformed by this Eucharist.

St. Paul strongly chastises Christians in Corinth for allowing their celebration of the Eucharist to reflect social and economic divisions within their society. They were not allowing the Eucharist to affect all of life, individually and as a faith community. In effect, they have fenced the Eucharist, forcing it to affect only a tiny sliver of their time and energy - a miniscule part of their life. They are worshipping their status quo - in this case, their sense of who counts and who does not count. God did not see it that way. It would be pleasant but false to report that this liturgical abuse has completely vanished over time. Such abuse goes to the heart of the Eucharist and the reason that Jesus gave it to us in the first place. On the question of who is fit to join us in the Eucharist and who is not, I can only imagine what St. Paul would say to those bishops who choose to weaponized the Holy Eucharist by refusing it to people they consider unworthy. The result is further polarization, which is an assault on the unity of the Body of Christ, which we celebrate in the words, "One Bread, One Body".

The Fourth Lateran Council sought to increase reverence for the Eucharist in several ways. It decided that all Christians must confess mortal sins at least once a year and then receive Holy Communion. It required the faithful to make sure that churches were clean and that altar vessels and linens used at Mass were also clean.

So how should we celebrate the feast of Corpus Christi in 2022? We should continue to show the reverence we have been showing for years. We also need to allow the Eucharist to have its full effect in our lives as individuals and as members of the faith community. That has deep and widespread implications for addressing the common good of society - Christian and non-Christian. This will influence how we think about housing, healthcare, immigration, and so on. These same issues are dismissed by far too many Christians as "merely political." That suggests a divided life that some rich Christians in Corinth found acceptable, but that St. Paul vehemently rejected.

Our "Amen" when receiving Holy Communion is not simply an affirmation about the substance of the consecrated host. It affirms our willingness to recognize the individual and communal blind spots with which we have become comfortable. The Eucharist gives the strength 24/7 to become what we receive.

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

Even if we are unable to physically receive Holy Communion at times we can enter into spiritual Communion with the Lord by praying:

My Jesus, I believe that You are truly present in the Most Blessed Sacrament.

I love You above all things, and I desire to possess You within my soul. I am sorry for ever having offended you.

Since I am unable now to receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as being already there,
and unite myself wholly to You.

Never, never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

NATIONAL EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

This Eucharistic movement seeks to bring together clergy, religious, laity, apostolates, movements, and parish and diocesan leaders to spur momentum, collaboration, and lasting impact for the renewal of the Catholic Church in the U.S. over the next three years. Each year will have a strategic focus for formation and missionary discipleship.

+Year One (2022-23): Year of Diocesan Revival – During the first year the U.S. bishops will invite their presbyterates, diocesan teams, and parish leaders to a renewed love for Jesus in the Eucharist by hosting and highlighting diocesan-wide events such as Eucharistic congresses and days of formation centered on the mystery of the Eucharist in the life of the Church.

+Year Two (2023 – 24): Year of Parish Revival – During the Parish Year pastors will invite their parishioners and staff to become even more truly and deeply Eucharistic communities through small groups, increase exploration of the sacrifice of the Mass, Eucharistic adoration, catechetical studies on the Real Presence of Christ, parish-sponsored processions, and other activities to enable deeper encounters with Our Lord in the Eucharist.

+Year Three (2024 – 25): Year of the National Eucharistic Congress and Missionary Sending – During the third year the Church will gather for the first National Eucharistic Congress in almost fifty years, where approximately 80,000 Catholics are anticipated to draw close to Jesus in the Eucharist by way of a pilgrimage to Indianapolis from July 17-21, 2024. The intended fruit of the Congress is to prepare the faithful from around the country to go out to the peripheries of their communities as “Eucharistic missionaries” filled with the flame of divine charity for those around them. Following the vote of the U. S. bishops at the November 2021 general assembly, a new corporation has been formed to plan and implement this milestone event.

"The Holy Eucharist is the perfect Communion of Saints, for it is the food common to angels, and sainted souls in Paradise, and ourselves; it is the true bread of which all Christians participate. The forgiveness of sins, the author of forgiveness being there, is confirmed; the seed of our resurrection sown, life everlasting bestowed. ... This very belief in the most holy Sacrament, which in truth, reality, and substance, contains the true and natural body of Our Lord, is actually the abridgment of our faith, according to that of the Psalmist "He had made a memory of his wonderful works." O holy and perfect memorial of the Gospel! O admirable summing up of our faith! He who believes, O Lord, in your presence in this most holy sacrament, as your holy Church proposes it, has gathered and sucked the sweet honey of all the flowers of your holy religions: hardly can he ever fail in faith."

"Our Savior has instituted the most August sacrament of the Eucharist, which contains His Flesh and His Blood in their reality, to the end that he who eats of it shall live forever. Whoever, therefore, frequently eats with devotion this food, so effectually confirms the health of his soul that it is almost impossible that he should be poisoned by any kind of evil affection. We cannot be nourished with this flesh of life and at the same time live with the affections of death. Thus, as men dwelling in the earthly paradise might have avoided corporal death by power of that living fruit which God had planted therein, so they may also avoid spiritual death by virtue of this sacrament of life."
