THE BUDDHIST CATHOLIC DIALOGUE ON SUFFERING, LIBERATION, AND FRATERNITY

June 23-27, 2015

Rome, Italy

As a participant in a significant interreligious dialogue this past week, I would like to share, in time, my own personal impressions. What is more important and newsworthy is that I share the Joint Statement of the Pontifical Council for Interreligious Dialogue and the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. The Statement describes the purpose of this unique conference of Buddhists and Catholics and what was resolved.

In his keynote address, Cardinal Jean-Louis Tauran, the President of the Pontifical Council for Interreligious Dialogue, reminded us this year will mark the 50th Anniversary of Nostra Aetate. Nostra Aetate is the Vatican II "charter" for interreligious relations, dialogue and collaboration. The document recalls that "men look to various religions for answers to those profound mysteries of the human condition which, today as in older times, deeply stir the human heart..."

Of Buddhism, Nostra Aetate says: "in its various forms, (it) realizes the radical insufficiency of this changeable world; it teaches a way by which men, in a devout and confident spirit, may be able either to acquire the state of the perfect liberation, or attain, by their own efforts or through higher help, supreme illumination."

For fifty years the Catholic Church has been committed to DIALOGUE with the world's great religions. The thrust of Dialogue has been fourfold a Dialogue of Life, Religious Experience, Theological Exchange, and finally a Dialogue of Action. There have been remarkable achievements in neighbor to neighbor cooperation, in scholarly and spiritual sharing. In our world where poverty and suffering, violence and disregard for human dignity threaten global security and peace, the Dialogue of Action is of crucial importance. It has been the hope of our holy fathers, and especially Pope Francis, that Christians and other religious people "collaborate for the development and liberation of people".

Pope Francis, in his message to Buddhists in 2014, has called Buddhists to "Fraternity". Fraternity can enable us "to look upon and treat each person as a true sister or brother; without fraternity it is impossible to build a just society and a solid and lasting peace."

In our private audience with Pope Francis on June 24, his simple message was an exhortation to "plant the seeds" of peace together.

Five days of presentations, discussions, prayer and meditations were fruitful. As an exchange of "gifts" from our traditions and experiences, they fostered greater mutual respect and a commitment to share the challenges human suffering imposes. Our dialogue left us all hopeful. The witness of Catholic Charities and the St. Vincent de Paul Society also provided an impressive model of compassion in action. After all was said, a Joint Statement emerged as the foundation for ongoing social action initiatives. Participants returned to their own communities, pledging to continue to "plant seeds" and cultivate together a "fraternity" that can help heal and reconcile a broken, wounded humanity.

-Fr. Luczak

Joint Statement

The Bishops' Committee for Ecumenical and Interreligious Affairs of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops in collaboration with the Pontifical Council for Interreligious Dialogue convened a Buddhist-Catholic Dialogue on "Suffering, Liberation, and Fraternity" in Rome, Italy from June 23 to 27, 2015.

45 Buddhists and Catholics involved in interreligious dialogue and/or social action in the United States attended from New York, Chicago, Los Angeles, San Francisco, and Washington, DC. The Archdioceses of these five cities supported the dialogue. Among the Catholic participants were representatives from Catholic Charities, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, the Focolare Movement, Monastic Interreligious Dialogue, and the Catholic Association for Diocesan Ecumenical and Interreligious Officers. Buddhist participants from the United States included leaders representing the Sri Lankan, Thai, Cambodian, Vietnamese, Tibetan, Chinese, Korean, and Japanese traditions.

The dialogue strengthened mutual understanding concerning human suffering and means of liberation, as well as deepened relationships as a basis for interreligious cooperation based on shared values. The objective of this "dialogue of fraternity," as it is called by Pope Francis, is to create new and practical forms of collaboration reaching out to those in need in the cities of the participants in the United States of America.

After this dialogue, the participants agreed to return together to their cities to explore the following kinds of joint interfaith social action initiatives:

- * Addressing global climate change on the local level
- * Creating outreach program for youth in the cities
- * Collaborating in prison/jail ministries and restorative justice matters
- * Developing resources for the homeless such as affordable housing
- * Educating and providing resources to address the issue of immigration
- * Collaborating to create projects with local Catholic parishes and Buddhist communities to address neighborhood social issues
- * Developing social outreach programs for value education to families
- * Witnessing our shared commitment as brothers and sisters, our religious values and spiritual practices, and our social collaboration with our religious communities and others in our cities.

We also need a copy of each child's baptismal certificate if they were not baptized here at St. Isaac Jogues Parish. Families with children who are older and have not celebrated First Reconciliation or First Communion or who have children with special needs are encouraged to call Dolores Stanton, 847/966-1180, to discuss how we can help them in their education and formation in the faith and preparation for sacraments. All are welcome! If you have a financial concern, please talk to us about it. No one is denied religious education due to financial difficulties.

PICNIC MEETING NEWS

The next Parish Community Picnic Meeting is this Wednesday, July 8th, at 7 p.m. in the Holy Family Room. If you would like to help with the planning, please come. Let's work together to make this a great event!

DONATE GIFT CARDS TO ST. VINCENT DE PAUL
MINISTRY

Do you have a gift card that is lying dormant, just sitting in your drawer? Maybe it's for a store you don't patronize. Maybe you really don't need another gift. Why not consider donating this gift card to your St. Vincent de Paul Ministry? If you donate your gift card, you will be supporting the work we do in helping the needy of our community.

According to research, over $100 billion in gift cards were purchased in the US in a one year period; yet over 20% of those gift cards will go unredeemed or unused.

We can use your donated gift cards to buy warm socks or gloves for a homeless person. We can purchase diapers for a needy family or formula for an infant. We can provide hygiene products like soap and shampoo to people who might not otherwise be able to afford these basic essentials. We can buy bed sheets and pillows for a family who has just moved into our area.

To donate, please place your gift cards in an envelope, marked "St. Vincent de Paul Ministry" and place the envelope in the collection plate on Sunday.

Thank you for your kind assistance.

Your St. Vincent de Paul Ministry

FOOD PANTRY NEEDS

The St. Vincent de Paul Food Pantry is running low and needs your help re-stocking our shelves with canned vegetables and soup. Drop your donations in the basket by the Holy Family Room or at the front entrance.

Thank you for your help!
