AWFUL TRUTH OR AMAZING GRACE?

Why We Need a New Evangelization

Few things are more inspiring, and consoling, for a pastor than to hear the story of a conversion or return to the Catholic Church. In either scenario, one cannot escape the “God factor.” God’s mysterious presence is so real and active, yet so easy for us humans to miss or ignore! The pundits of pop culture have taken polls and surveys, and have judged ignorance or indifference to religious practice as “decline and fall.” They seem very certain of their opinion. Their diagnosis is a post mortem. Of course, it would be foolish for believers to ignore disturbing facts. For example, it has been estimated that 23% of U. S. Catholics attend Mass each week! The 77% who are absent include our own relatives and friends. Surprisingly, the Center for Applied Research in the Apostolate studied the rationale for missing Mass, and found it is not related to controversial issues. The six reasons for Catholics not attending Mass regularly are:

1. they have busy schedules and lack time,
2. they have family responsibilities,
3. they have health problems or disabilities,
4. they have conflicts at work,
5. they do not believe missing Mass is a sin, or
6. believe that they are not very religious people

These six reasons reflect the tempo of modern life and cultural changes. Secularism, individualism, and materialism are pervasive in the changing attitudes toward religious practice. What Catholics put first in their lives very often comes from a values disorientation. Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI was clear in his denunciation of relativism and the tendency to treat religion as a private matter.

He said:

“Only when their faith permeates every aspect of their lives do Christians become truly open to the transforming power of the Gospel “. . .

Moreover, God remains not just a matter of interest, but the fulfillment of our deepest needs.

“Without God, who alone bestows upon us what we by ourselves cannot attain, our lives are ultimately empty.”

When the need for God and the Church surface for Catholics who distanced themselves from both, sometimes fear and embarrassment stand in the way of returning. There are many different stories about “reverts” (cradle Catholics returning to the Catholic Church). Online, About.com Catholicism provides the testimony of those who had left the Church and have returned.

Key questions asked are:

1. Were you a cradle Catholic or Convert?
2. How old were you when you left the Catholic Church?
3. How old when you returned?
4. Why did you leave the Catholic Church?
5. Why did you return to Catholicism?
6. Advice?

Reading stories of “converts” and “reverts” and reflecting on their advice can enlighten others and encourage the lapsed especially to begin their own “journey” back to the Church.

From my experience, I know that there is no greater motivation to return to the practice of the Catholic faith than Catholics who know what they believe and show what they believe!

Consider this article the first of several on the need for a NEW EVANGELIZATION.

WE CAN ONLY CONTINUE ALL OF THE GOOD WORK WE DO BECAUSE OF YOUR GENEROSITY. HELP US GET ON TRACK AND LETS SEE WHAT ELSE WE CAN ACCOMPLISH TOGETHER!

From the Pastor

Thank You

July begins a new Fiscal Year. Like the conventional start of a new year, a new Fiscal Year is a time to look ahead to new challenges, but also to be grateful for groups that have helped the parish with their financial advice and support. We have been blessed with a capable Business Manager, Lori Herbert and excellent Finance Council -- Al Leksander, Barb Watson, Kathy Denning, Jerry Zeller and Ned Griffin. Thanks to the generosity of our Women's Club and Men's Club, we have additional funds to cover unforeseen or exceptional expenses in the parish. Their end of the year "gifts" show a keen sense of stewardship. Such examples of stewardship ought to encourage more volunteers and greater support of fundraising efforts. As pastor, I am grateful and hopeful in facing the 2013-2014 Fiscal Year. May God bless our combined efforts to make St. Isaac Jogues an even better parish.

Registration for the 2013-2014 Religious Education Program for Kindergarten through Confirmation Year II continues! Please call the RE Office, 847/966-1180, to set up a time to come in and fill out registration forms. New families or returning families who are registering another child will need to bring a copy of each child's baptismal certificate if they were not baptized here at St. Isaac Jogues Church.

Kindergarten classes meet on Sundays, 10:30-11:30 a.m. and Grs. 1 – Confirmation Year II meet on Mondays, 6:45-8:00 p.m. Families are strongly encouraged to involve their children each year as no one year suffices in providing what is important for a strong faith foundation. Students preparing for sacraments must attend for the two immediate years prior to receiving each sacrament. If families have children with special needs or who have not received their sacraments, we would be happy to meet with you and discuss options. There is tuition as well as applicable book and sacrament fees. Families with financial concerns are encouraged to talk with us as no child is denied religious education because of finances. All are welcome!

If you have questions, please call the Religious Education Office at 847/966-1180. We look forward to the opportunity to help all families raise their children in our Catholic faith!

PLEASE NOTE!

The August 9 "Friday Night at the Movies" will feature "The Nun's Story" and will begin at 6:30 p.m. downstairs in the Parish Hall. Doors will open at 6:00 p.m. Invite a friend!

Teen Group Meeting

The Teen Group, in addition to accepting the school supply donations, will also have a meeting on Sunday, August 4th, at 11:30 a.m. in the Holy Family Room. We'll have snacks and discussion, share prayer, pack up the school supplies and look ahead to our participation in the Walk For Life to benefit the Women's Center and the St. Isaac Jogues Festival in October.

Altar Servers

The new Altar Server Schedule has been mailed out. Please note this new schedule begins with August 10-11 so please do not throw out your other schedule until after August 4th! If you do not receive it by the middle of this week, call the RE Office, 847/966-1180. Thank you!

Sign up for new Altar Servers will begin in late August/early September. There will be three training evenings on Mondays before RE class in September/October. Students in Grs. 4 and older are welcome to join whether you are in RE or attend Catholic school. Details will be available through RE class and here in the bulletin.

Questions? Call Mrs. Stanton, 847/966-1180.

SCHOOL SUPPLIES DRIVE

The SIJ Teen Group asks your help for the children of our Sharing Parish, Maternity BVM, and some of the children of our own parish during the annual School Supply Drive which will be held the weekend of August 3-4 in the Holy Family Room. New supplies create excitement as another school year begins and we know we can count on you! Please start looking for those school supply sales! Every gift (school supplies or monetary donation) will be a blessing to the children and their families. Together let's also give them the gift of our prayers, asking the Holy Spirit to lead and guide them! God bless you for your generosity and support!

School supplies appreciated:

First Friday

First Friday Adoration and Devotions, dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary for the healing and guidance of our nation, will be held on this Friday, August 2, from 7-10 p.m. in Church. We begin with the Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, pray the Patriotic Rosary, the Divine Mercy Chaplet, all the mysteries of the Rosary, silent prayer and conclude with Benediction. All are encouraged to join in part or all of this evening of prayer and adoration.

RCIA

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a process of prayer, reflection, study and discussion for people who are seeking, or desiring to deepen a relationship with Jesus Christ and the Catholic Church. If you, or someone you know, have never been baptized, are a baptized Christian but want to learn how the Catholic Church lives its life in Christ, or are a baptized Catholic but have not received Confirmation and First Communion, we invite you to consider joining the RCIA and enjoy the support and encouragement of Catholics who want to support you, and learn from you, as together we walk with the Lord. An information evening will be held in August or please call Dee Stanton, 847/966-1180. Your inquiry does not commit you to joining!

Interreligious Dialogue

One of the most remarkable developments in Christian-Muslim relations is the growing efforts of interreligious dialogue. It is an interfaith initiative which brings representatives from different religions to various occasions: conferences, meals, social outreaches, and many other expressions of collaboration known in our neighborhoods. The thought of Muslims and Christians gathered and working together strongly mitigates the fears we may have of each other.

Yes, interreligious dialogue has remarkably yielded unprecedented positive fruits. Moreover, it is an excellent model which is familiar to many of us: family members dialogue when something is needed to be sorted out or to be solved; parishioners as well may enter into a dialogue when some community matters require some consultations. It is essentially a communication, but it goes beyond the exchange of information because it sets an aura of commitment and sincerity to first listen and then to speak which ultimately aims at enkindling mutual respects and peaceful co-existence and collaboration.

Let Go

Last week we looked at welcoming our children as the individuals they are. This week we look at the complementary spiritual practice of being willing to let our children go. Letting go starts early: the first time we leave our child with a babysitter, child-care provider, or preschool teacher. And before you know it, they're driving on their own, heading off to a job, or going away to college. Letting go graciously—with trust in the goodness of God—can be a challenge for parents. Luckily, we can look to the example of God, our Father, who both welcomes us into life and, by the gift of free will, lets us go. We gain comfort knowing that, like God, our hearts are never far from the children we launch into life. —Tom McGrath

MISSIONARY COOPERATION PLAN

"The Second Vatican Council taught us that the Church is missionary by her very nature. It is a non-negotiable. We can't choose not to give mission pride-of-place in Catholic life. One way in which we can increase our awareness of mission is through the Missionary Cooperation Plan.

Here in the Archdiocese of Chicago and in diocese across the country the mission appeals take place during the summer. In Chicago, the Office of Mission Education for the New Evangelization makes the missionary assignments. We typically get 300-400 applications from organizations, diocese and religious communities that need prayerful and financial support for various mission projects in which they are engaged. The aim of each project is to make Christ known and loved. Some are direct evangelization efforts and others seek to reveal Christ through projects to help people have a more wholesome way of life.

The Missionary Cooperation Plan (MCP) is a way for Catholics to learn about the Church's missionary efforts throughout the world. Even if your parish is supporting a parish, school, or other project in one part of the world, the missionary who makes an appeal at your parish helps to make you aware of what is happening in another part of the globe.

Every year the Archdiocese of Chicago welcomes missionaries from India, Africa, Asia, South America and the Pacific Islands as well as U.S. representatives of mission societies. The funds they collect never remain in the USA. Your donations are sent to the Office of Mission Education and we disburse them to the respective mission groups for use in other countries. What this gives us here in the Archdiocese is an opportunity to share in mission throughout the world. Our local presence then becomes global.

The MCP helps us in another way too. As we learn about how others engage in mission, we learn that to be on mission is our baptismal vocation -- whether we are called to go on mission in another country or here in our neighborhood, at work or at school

So welcome the missionary to your parish, open yourself to the gift he/she is and allow the Holy Spirit to move you to be on mission wherever you are!"

On August 10-11 St. Isaac Jogues Parish will welcome Fr. Christsanth Mugasha, A. J., who will make the mission appeal on behalf of the Evangelizing Sisters of Mary, a missionary African congregation. Your generosity in the second collection and your prayers will be greatly appreciated.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Apart from the period from Thanksgiving through Christmas, the summer is a favored time for family reunions. We trace family trees and recall our origins. Worship has a family tree as well, and the way we celebrate today has been influenced by various styles and customs through the centuries. We are Western Christians of the Latin Rite. By far, we are the most numerous Western Christians, but there are other ritual families as well. The Archdiocese of Milan in Italy follows the Ambrosian Rite, Toledo in Spain preserves the Mozarabic Rite and the Arab language, and Lyons in France is home to the Gallican Rite. Other liturgical families, such as the Celtic in Ireland and the Sarum in England, faded away after the Reformation. Until recent times, members of some ancient religious orders such as Carmelites and Trappists followed a pattern of Mass that varied slightly from the plan observed in Latin Rite parishes.

Isn't the Catholic Church the same everywhere? Not at all. It never has been! The existence of so many liturgical families in the West reminds us that unity, not uniformity, is what the Church seeks to achieve among her children. We are united in faith, but wonderfully diverse in rituals, ceremonies, languages, customs, and spirituality.
