True humility is not thinking less of yourself;
it is thinking of yourself less

- C.S. Lewis

"HUMILITAS": The Crowning Virtue

Cardinal Mundelein

The Book of Sirach advises us:

*My child, conduct your affairs with humility,
and you will be loved more than giver of gifts.
Humble yourself the more, the greater you are,
and you will find favor with God.*

Humility? In his Catholic Dictionary, Fr. John Hardon - - whose cause for canonization has been introduced - - describes humility as

The moral virtue that keeps a person from reaching beyond himself . . . that restrains the unruly desire for personal greatness and leads people to an orderly love of themselves based on a true appreciation of their position with respect to God and their neighbors.

We admire heroes, champions, and geniuses who gracefully step into the limelight, bow and then merge with common humanity. We hope that their gifts will be a leaven . . . that their greatness will make us better somehow. What irritates us is prideful arrogance. What comes to mind here is a song I learned at a choir party:

"O Lord, it's hard to be humble when you're perfect in every way!"

Humility is the opposite of pride, which inflates and distorts our own importance. Pride, the greatest lie, is the surest path to failure. Humility that creates a "show" is actually a subtle form of pride. St. Francis de Sales tells us:

True humility does not make a show of herself or use many humble words; for she desires not only to conceal other virtues, but most of all to conceal herself.

The Gospel admonition, "some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last" is not incitement to social revolution. It is an invitation to personal authenticity . . . Be what you really are! Prune the ego, and grow as a person. As she always did, Blessed Mother Teresa of Calcutta, put it in a simpler and better form:

"The more you forget yourself, the more Jesus will think of you."

No one who has toured St. Mary of the Lake Seminary in Mundelein can long avoid the great Cardinal Mundelein's coat of arms. In one quarter, on a field of red, is the word

"HUMILITAS" surmounted with a golden crown! It was ironic enough to be a joke! The grand, politically savvy Archbishop of Chicago, who was chauffeured around in a Dusenbergs, could not have chosen a more unlikely word to describe his ecclesial style! Humilitas? Hardly!

Only much later did I learn what Cardinal Mundelein may have intended by including Humilitas on his coat of arms. It was at Borromeo Castle on Lake Maggiore that I saw a similar coat of arms. It was that of St. Charles Borromeo! Along with the "Bees" of the Barbarini family, the crowned Humilitas revealed Cardinal Mundelein's good intentions. Humilitas was homage to a holy saint who really lived the virtue in his service of the Church and the poor. Cardinal Mundelein honored the Barbarinis too because they were great builders. It was a Barbarini pope who completed St. Peter's Basilica. All of this points to the greatness of Cardinal Mundelein as a builder. It is a fact that he occasionally descended democratically from his Dusenbergs to walk and talk with seminarians. Cardinal Mundelein may never have reached the sanctity of Charles Borromeo. Still, he was a tireless worker, a man who envisioned great things for Chicago. Perhaps, even as he processed down the aisle of Holy Name Cathedral to the Grand March from Aïda, he still might have embodied what C. S. Lewis said about humility:

*True Humility is not thinking less of yourself;
It is thinking of yourself less.*

STRONG CATHOLIC FAMILIES: STRONG CATHOLIC YOUTH

St. Isaac Jogues Parish will host a presentation on the "Strong Catholic Families: Strong Catholic Youth" process with Amanda Thompson from the Archdiocesan Family Ministries Office on Tuesday, September 10, at 7 p.m. in Rm. 26 of the school (enter near RE Office). This process is made up of four distinct steps that lead to many ways for faith to grow with families and the parish community. In addition to the Spiritual Life Commission being in attendance we invite interested RE Catechists, Assistants, and Parents/Guardians, Staff Members, Pastoral Council Members and Parishioners (whether you are raising teens, are empty nesters, grandparents, etc.) to participate in this one hour presentation & discussion. If you plan to attend that evening, please take a copy of the "Initial Inquiry and Assessment Reflection" form from the envelope in the sacristy or contact the RE Office to make arrangements to obtain a copy. Please read it and answer what you can in preparation.

MINISTRY OF CARE

Ministry of Care Training is being jointly sponsored and hosted by Presence Resurrection Medical Center and Advocate Lutheran General Hospital on Wednesday evenings, 7-9 p.m. on Sept. 25 and Oct. 2, 9, 16, 23. If you are interested in becoming a Minister of Care of our parish community to bring the Eucharist and our caring presence to those in local nursing homes or homebound, please call to set up a time to speak with Deacon Paul and Dee Stanton, 847/966-1180, about the ministry and to register for the training. Registration must be completed by September 15.

Ministers of Care will meet on Friday, September 13, at 5:45 p.m. in the Holy Family Room. We will discuss the upcoming Mass of the Anointing of the Sick and check in with how things are going in the ministry. We should be done in time for those who want to see the movie down in the parish hall!

Who is My Neighbor?

"The First Pillar of Islam: Witness to Faith"

"Catholics profess the Creed as a declaration of their Christian faith. Muslims declare their witness to faith in the words of the Shahada: 'There is no god but God, and Muhammad is God's Messenger'. This is the first pillar of Islam, and begins with a Muslim's belief in one God, and also in the absolute oneness of God. The role of Muhammad in the life of Muslims completes the Shahada.

"The term Shahada itself comes from an Arabic word that means 'to witness'. Muslims believe that Muhammad is the witness par excellence and that his life is the perfect human expression of witness.

"Muslims say the Shahada every day, and every time they do, they pray to be gradually transformed into a Shahid, a witness of God, the supreme expression of total submission to God. So central is this pillar that in order to become a Muslim, a person makes a simple declaration of the Shahada before two witnesses."

Moderation

Moderation helps us find balance. It is the virtue that allows us to keep a good thing from becoming too much of a good thing, whether that's too much food, drink, work, shopping, or the need to be popular.

Lack of moderation affects our children in numerous ways: our behaviors set a bad example, we become less available to them, and shame can lead to secrecy and withdrawal from the family. Moderation helps us honestly recognize where we are out of balance and enables us to admit that to trustworthy and helpful people. It also offers us a chance to create new life-giving habits to replace the ones that cause problems. We don't do this alone. Moderation flows from the grace of God and the support of good companions. —Tom McGrath

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Conduct your affairs with humility (Sirach 3:17-18, 20, 28-29).

Psalm — God, in your goodness, you have made a home for the poor (Psalm 68).

Second Reading — You have approached the city of the living God (Hebrews 12:18-19, 22-24a).

Gospel — Those who humble themselves will be exalted (Luke 14:1, 7-14).

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The readings today center on mindfulness, awareness of where we stand in God's plan. The mountain of Sinai carries a message of the majesty and distance of God, while Jesus' presence as host of the banquet speaks of intimacy and mystery. September's shadow calls us all to mindfulness as we prepare to return to life outside of summer. The Christian life holds these two places of knowledge of God in careful balance. Even in the accounts of the Passion we see the table of the upper room in balance with the Mount of Olives.

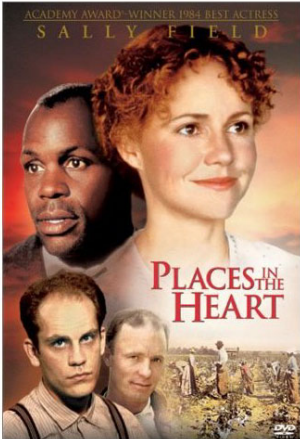

Altar means "high place," yet it is also a table. The former liturgy of the Latin Rite began with the priest bowing at the foot of the altar's three steps, chanting Introibo ad altare Dei, or "I will go to the altar of God," followed by the altar servers' response, "The God who gives joy to my youth." Many parishioners can recall and recite this scene by heart. As with so many things in liturgy, there are layers of meaning in our worship. The altar table evokes memories of the high places once reserved for encounter with the holy, and the intimacy of the table where hospitality draws us to share food and drink.

Let's Go to the Movies!

September the 13th (Friday the 13th) will be the next "Friday Night at the Movies". Doors open at 6:00 p.m. and the movie starts at 6:30. There's free popcorn and pop, and the movie's free as well. There's a free-will donation if you like. This month's movie is the 1984 hit "Places In The Heart," starring Sally Field, Ed Harris, Amy Madigan, and Danny Glover. It was acclaimed by critics all across the country and boasted an Academy Award winning performance by Sally Field. Its emotionally gripping story centers around the unending struggle of a woman after losing her husband. The final five minutes gives us a 'look of heaven' as the choir sings, "In the Garden." This will touch your heart. Don't let the fact it's Friday the 13th stop you. No goblins here!

We do not have any more available seats for the Sept. 7 (Saturday) Pilgrimage to Our Lady of Good Help in New Franken, WI. Please note: All confirmed passengers MUST be prepared to be on board the bus NO LATER THAN 6:45 AM. No last minute rush, please. Thank you for your cooperation. The bus will depart by 7:00 AM or as soon as all confirmed passengers are already on board. For more information, email rodranola@yahoo.com.

40 Days of Prayer, Fasting & Action for Immigration Reform

August 15 – September 23, 2013

"I was a stranger and you welcomed me.." (Matthew 25:35)

Please join us for a 40-day campaign to gain local congressional support for a bipartisan comprehensive immigration reform bill in 2013. Cardinal Francis George wrote the following: "During these next several months we have the opportunity and moral obligation to take concrete actions, as part of our wider evangelization efforts on the issue of immigration, to address this human tragedy in the United States. I am committed to doing so... I have asked my episcopal vicars to offer their support as well. I am writing now to ask for yours."

ACTION: Please pray, fast and act for comprehensive immigration reform in the next 40 days. Join the activities sponsored by the Office for Immigration Affairs. The campaign began August 15th but you can participate any time. For more information, go to

The Women's Center

As a pregnancy help center, each year we serve approximately 3,300 women. We save mothers and babies from the tragedy of abortion and help their families. We can only do this with your help.

We are happy to pass on your used baby equipment to mothers who cannot afford to buy it. Our need is great because we have two distribution centers. If you attend a garage sale, please ask the sellers to donate items to us. A donation receipt for tax purposes is available. We have a waiting list for 8 strollers, 2 double strollers, 3 bassinets, 3 bouncers, 5 pack n plays, 5 fixed side cribs, 3 changing tables, 4 infant car seats, and 3 toddler beds. It will be a great help if you can deliver these to us. For our address, or if a pick-up by a volunteer is needed, please call 773-794-1313.

We have a great need for a couple of people to work as baby furniture volunteers helping load clients' vehicles at our Chicago office on Wednesdays from 10 a.m. until 2 or 3 p.m. Being bi-lingual is a plus. We also need volunteers to sort and hang clothing and assist clients in our Chicago Family Resource Room on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. For information about these volunteer opportunities, email:

jkeenanan@womens-center.org or call Jackie at 773-794-8807.

Toiletries (shampoo, toothpaste and deodorant), baby formula and diapers in sizes 1, 4 and 5 are urgently needed. These must be delivered to us unless accompanied by baby furniture. The families who receive these things are grateful for your generosity. Call 773-794-1313 for our address.

We need volunteer sonographers who are already certified or nurses trained in limited ultrasound. For information call Kathleen at 708-425-0707.

Don't forget our Walk for Life on Sunday, September 29th. For information and pledge sheets, phone 773-794-1313 or visit our website at www.womens-center.org.
