MICHAELMAS:

*More than a
"Rumor of Angels"*

In 1981, the pilgrim path led me to the Gargano, a mountainous wooded promontory on Italy's Adriatic coast. It has been called the "Spur of Italy." In the southeastern part of Umbria, the Gargano is both scenic and historic. Here and there, you will discover remnants of bygone glory in architecture which combines elements of Byzantine, Romanesque and Norman Gothic. The Gargano was a Crusader destination on the way to the Holy Land. One of the reasons why it was popular is Monte Sant' Angelo, the Shrine of St. Michael the Archangel.

Legend has it that, in 492, a herder named Gargano was pasturing cattle in the mountainous countryside. A bull escaped. Gargano pursued it, but it managed to elude him, taking refuge in a mountain cave. Shooting an arrow into the cave, it returned to wound the archer. The strange event was reported to the local bishop. He ordered a three day fast and prayer, and then returned to the cave himself. The bishop reported afterwards that St. Michael the Archangel appeared to him and told him God wanted a sanctuary there. It was to be dedicated to the honor of St. Michael and all Holy Angels. The grotto today has an eerie atmosphere. It is as though time has stood still. There is a relic that is alleged to be a red cloak left by St. Michael when he appeared to a poor shepherd. A priest friend, who was travelling with me, commented, "Now I know what the Church would have been like if the Reformation hadn't happened."

In the Golden Legend, the story of St. Michael's apparition to the Bishop of Sipontum emphasized the shrine, but also promised protection from pagan invaders. Pope Gelasius I (492-496) ordered that a Basilica be built to enclose the grotto and cave of the apparition.

A reputed miracle on May 8, 663 turned the tide of battle between the Lombards and the Imperial Byzantine army. According to accounts, St. Michael appeared with a flaming sword on the mountain's summit.

May 8 was, for hundreds of years, a Feast honoring the Apparition of St. Michael and the victory of the Lombards. Monte Sant' Angelo was called the "Celestial Basilica." Many popes, including John XXIII and John Paul II visited the shrine as did saints like Bridget of Sweden, Bernard of Clairvaux and Thomas Aquinas. There is also a story about St. Francis of Assisi. Feeling unworthy to enter the grotto, he prayed at the entrance. He kissed a stone and carved a "Tau" cross on it!

The pilgrimage to Monte Sant' Angelo and the other shrines that honor St. Michael and All Angels -- like Mont Saint Michel, Castel Sant' Angelo in Rome and the Eglise de Sainte Michel in Le Puy -- testifies to a living Catholic faith in Angels. It is ever so much more than a 'Rumor of Angels' or a New Age fantasy! The Catechism of the Catholic Church (#334-335) tells us:

"The whole life of the church benefits from the mysterious and powerful help of Angels . . . From its beginning until death, human life is surrounded by their watchful care and intercession."

September 29 is Michaelmas. It honors all angels of God, but especially three -- St. Michael, St. Gabriel and St. Raphael. Their names describe their service to the Lord. Michael means "Who is like God?" Gabriel means "Power of God" and Raphael means "God has healed."

St. Michael's special role is fourfold.

1. He is the supreme adversary of Satan and the Fallen Angels.
2. He is the Christian "Angel of Death" -- God's instrument of mercy at the end of human life, offering a final chance to accept Redemption.
3. Shown with a scale in hand, Michael is also the instrument of God's judgment.
4. St. Michael is finally the "Guardian of the Church."

As we honor St. Michael and All Angels, our lives open more fully to a spiritual dimension of human life and the Greater Mystery of God.

- Fr. Luczak

Prayers to St. Michael

Pope Leo XIII added a Prayer to St. Michael to the Leonine Prayers in 1886. Although these prayers are no longer recited after Mass, as they were until 1964, Pope John Paul II encouraged the Catholic faithful to continue to pray it, saying: "I ask everyone not to forget it and to recite it to obtain help in the battle against forces of darkness."

While Pope Leo XIII's Prayer to St. Michael, on the left below, is well known in the Catholic tradition, there are other prayers to St. Michael such as the one on the right:

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle;
be our protection against the wickedness and snares
of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

O glorious prince St. Michael, chief and commander of the heavenly hosts, guardian of souls, vanquisher
of rebel spirits, servant in the house of the Divine King and our admirable conductor, you who shine with excellence and superhuman virtue deliver us from all evil, who turn to you with confidence and enable us by your gracious protection to serve God
more and more faithfully every day. Amen

Congratulations to John & Mary Affatati, St. Isaac Jogues recipients of the "Christifideles Award." This award, given by the Archdiocese of Chicago recognizes "Catholic laypersons who demonstrate by participation in parish life, the personal and ministerial renewal called for by the Papal Exhortation, Christifideles Laici, (instituted by Pope John Paul II in 1988) calling the laity to the vocation of responsibility for the Church's life springing from the gift and mission of their baptism." The award is presented during a special ceremony at Holy Name Cathedral, during which the Archdiocese recognizes and extends their appreciation to individuals who go above and beyond in sharing their "talents." The award is recognized as a symbol of extraordinary service to the church. Join us in thanking John & Mary for all they've done and continue to do to support SJ!

Lorenzo Ruiz is the first Filipino saint. He is also the first Filipino martyred for the Christian Faith. Lorenzo Ruiz was a layman, married and had two sons and a daughter. Born in Binondo, Manila, about 1600, he was educated in the school of the Dominicans there. He served as an altar boy and later was a helper and clerk-sacristan in the church of Binondo. He was a member of the Confraternity of the Rosary. He made his living probably as a calligrapher, one who renders documents in beautiful penmanship for private or official use. To be sure, that work denoted an accomplished and educated person, especially at a time when many an illustrious personage was far from excelling in this art. An adverse event made him leave the Philippines in 1636. When he was in his late twenties or early thirties, he became involved or was accused of being involved in a criminal case, the circumstances of which are far from clear. Whether he was involved or not, one thing was clear, he was afraid that, as a consequence of a trial or mistrial, he might be given a death sentence. After joining a group of missionaries bound for Japan where Christians were being persecuted, he was arrested and imprisoned together with his companions. He underwent inhuman tortures and valiantly confessed his Christian faith. Refusing to renounce his Faith, he told his executioner that he was ready to die for God and a thousand times over again for Him. On September 27, 1637, he was hung from a gallows by his feet, his body falling into a pit. After two days of agony, he died of bleeding and suffocation. His body was cremated and the ashes thrown into the sea. He and fifteen companions, martyred in the same persecution, were beatified by Pope John Paul II in Manila on February 18, 1981 and elevated to full honors of the altar by canonization on October 18, 1987 in Rome. Their official feast day is September 28th.

BABY BOTTLE PROJECT BEGINS TODAY

October is Respect Life Month! Participate in the Baby Bottle Project and support the efforts of the Women's Centers of Greater Chicagoland. They directly assist mothers and families experiencing crisis pregnancies by offering emotional, financial, material, and spiritual support through counseling, ultrasounds, clothing & monetary provisions, prayer, and other aid. Each year the three locations together have over 5,000 appointments with expecting mothers. By God's grace the Women's Centers have saved over 37,000 babies—and their mothers—from abortion since opening in 1984.

All you need to do is pick up a baby bottle in the Holy Family Room or one of the Church doors TODAY, and put your spare change or monetary sacrifices into the bottle during the month of October. Return the bottle and your donations the weekend of October 25-26. Pray for those who are pregnant and joyful, for those who are pregnant and fearful, and for those who work to support them and the gift of new life they carry! Your change, sacrifices and efforts will make a big difference! Thank you for helping defend life!

YANKEE CANDLE FUNDRAISER

The smell of candles helps set the mood for those special holiday seasons and meals. Candles and holders make great holiday gifts as well! And fortunate is our parish because Guild One of the Women's Club is sponsoring a Yankee Candle Fundraiser! Catalogs will be available and orders w/payments taken the next two weekends, October 4-5 and October 11-12. Checks are to be made payable to Guild One St. Isaac Jogues Women's Club. Delivery will be the weekend of November 15-16. There will be a second set of weekends to order with delivery before Christmas! Thanks for your support of this fundraiser, which ultimately helps the parish. Questions? Call Joyce Lenart, 847-823-9247.

FEAST DAY WEEKEND

We will celebrate the Feast of St. Isaac Jogues & the North American Martyrs the weekend of October 18-19. On Saturday, October 18, the Solemn Feast Day Mass will be at 5 p.m. and will include Native American music by Mr. Bill Buchholtz. Following the Mass we will hold a "Taste of St. Isaac Jogues" down in the Parish Hall. Ten groups will be providing "tastes" including Germany, India, Ireland, Italy, Mexico, Nigeria, Palestine, the Philippines, Poland, and the United States.

Food and beverage tickets will be fifty cents each and nothing will be more than four tickets! Music and storytelling will feature Bill Buchholtz. Then the fun moves to the Holy Family Room where we happily welcome back Patty and the Melts (Lisa Hall & family), who will play, sing, and encourage us to dance until 10 p.m. As if this were not enough excitement we will also draw the winning tickets for the PARISH 50/50 RAFFLE (are you in it to win it?).

On Sunday, October 19 (our actual feast day), we will have hospitality after all the Masses in the Holy Family Room. Come in for some refreshments and conversation.

Bring your families and friends! Invite former parishioners to join us for some or all of the feast day weekend activities. It's a chance to acknowledge once again that we are who we are as a parish community because of those who were here before us and those who are here now! Come and together let us give thanks for all God has accomplished through our parish and let us pray for the grace, strength and joy to proclaim and live the Gospel!

YEAR OF SACRAMENTS • ONE WORD AT A TIME

Link

The Eucharist brings us to God, and it brings God to us. And there is more. The Eucharist also links us one to another in the mystery of Jesus Christ. What no politician, no military leader, no scientist has ever been able to accomplish—to link humanity across all the boundaries of race, culture, and way of life—all that happens for us each time we gather to celebrate the Eucharist.

Even if I am not entirely aware of it, I am connected with people across the globe who share “the one bread and the one cup,” as Saint Paul describes the Eucharist. In this simple act of worship, we have the powerful seed of human solidarity. In the Eucharist, we hold our imagined future as one humanity, an imagined future that even now is becoming a reality.

The linking that happens in the Eucharist becomes a source of encouragement for us as well as a sign of our responsibility.
