Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time
October 12, 2014

COME TO THE FEST

There are actually people who enjoy television commercials. Wait and see. When the Super Bowl rolls around, there will be as much speculation on the outcome of game as there will be about commercials. Which will be the most outrageous or entertaining? We have come a long way from soaps that promise to be “99 and 44/100% pure” and cereals that are the “breakfast of champions.” If I have a particular “bone to pick” with Madison Avenue it is when dysfunctional families are portrayed as the norm. Unlikely offenders are two Daisy Sour Cream commercials. I’m sure you have seen the one where a boy compliments someone you think his “mother” on the best meal of the week. The maternal figure reminds the boy: “You don’t live here . . . Doesn’t your family miss you?” He responds, “No we text!” And everybody at the table accepts that as normal! The other Daisy commercial is set at a neighbor’s house. A couple glance at the neighbor’s family photo and see their own son, in his contrasting rugby shirt, lined up and smiling. They ask “Why is our son in their picture?” You have probably guessed that it is because they give him double portions of Daisy Sour Cream! So much for family identity, loyalty, and “Honoring Thy Father and Mother.” The Daisy commercial may not be worshipping the Golden Calf, but it is serving more than sour cream . . . You might call it pure “bull.”

As we prepare to celebrate our Parish Fest, a “Taste of St. Isaac Jogues,” let us count our blessings. Let us value our history, our diverse identity and the Christ-center of our lives. I am looking forward to the excellent food, music and fellowship. “Sharing” expresses spirit of the Parish Fest - “Many cultures, one Faith.” In other parishes where I have served, we also had celebrations like Parish Fest. What these celebrations have in common is faith, respect for differences, and the goal of harmony. I am proud of all who are working to make this year’s Fest a great experience of “Family.”

Please support the Raffle and remember our “To Teach Who Christ Is” campaign. Both are important if we are to undertake necessary repairs and effectively address the Parish deficit. Yes, as a Family of Faith, we have much to celebrate . . . Much for which to be grateful. But we need all our families to support the ministries and service that have made St. Isaac Jogues a vibrant parish for more than 55 years. It is a tradition that must be passed on.

You who have had a part in the great work, who have been loyal to the mission of this parish, Parish Fest is a salute to you and especially to our founders.

I have no idea whether Daisy Sour Cream will be served by any of our ethnic groups. In the real world, you don’t pick your parish or your family because of that double portion of Daisy!

-Fr. Luczak

It is also Registration Sunday so if you want to make St. Isaac Jogues your spiritual home we invite you to fill out a registration card and become a new parishioner – we welcome you among us! It is also our day to pray across from the abortion clinic on Elston and some of our teens will be participating in the CROP Walk to end hunger.

Come and together let us give thanks for all God has accomplished through our parish and let us pray for the grace, strength and joy to proclaim and live the Gospel!

St. Isaac Jogues, our Patron Saint 1607—1646

ISAAC JOGUES was born at Orleans, France, of well-to-do parents, he studied at the Jesuit school there and joined the Jesuits in 1624.

After his ordination in 1636, he requested and was sent to Quebec. He worked with great success among the Huron Indians until 1642, when a war party of Iroquois Indians, the traditional enemies of the Hurons, captured a group of Jesuits, among them Isaac and Rene Goupil, who was murdered.

After a year of terrible torture and mutilation, Isaac escaped with the aid of the Dutch at Albany to New York and returned to France. At his request he was sent back to Quebec in 1644. Two years later, he and Jean de Lalande set out for Iroquois country after a peace treaty with the Iroquois had been signed. They were captured by a Mohawk Indian war party and he was tomahawked and beheaded at Ossemenon, near Albany, New York, on October 18, 1646. Jean de Lalande suffered martyrdom the next day.

They were canonized with a group of other Jesuits in 1930 by Pope Pius XI as the Martyrs of North America.

Prayer for St. Isaac Jogues

O Lord God
Whose voice we hear in the winds
And whose breath gives life to all the world,
Hear us, your people, gathered together
under the care of St. Isaac Jogues.
We need your strength and your wisdom.

Help us walk in beauty and make our eyes ever behold
your beauty surrounding us.

Let our hands respect the things you have made and make us wise
so that we may understand the things you have taught your people.

Help us learn the lessons
you have hidden in all creation, and make us always ready to come to you with open arms and glad hearts.

So that together in the company of brother Isaac
our spirits may return to you without shame
to live forever and ever in peace.

Amen.

OFFICE OF THE ARCHBISHOP

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

Fall 2014

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Throughout the Archdiocese of Chicago, our places of worship are now most often arranged so that those who are physically disabled can be present more easily. There is steady progress, marked each year with the celebration of Inclusion Awareness Day in the fall. I encourage our parishes to participate in this important initiative.

I am grateful for the work of Pathways.org in raising the level of sensitivity of all of us to those in our parish communities who have physical, sensory or cognitive disabilities. Information on Inclusion Awareness Day and the availability of $1,000 grants to help fund parish access projects can be found at their website, www.InclusionInWorship.org.

I am proud of what we have done here in the Archdiocese to minister with and for people with disabilities. Having struggled most of my life to keep walking, I automatically mentally classify places according to how accessible they are. More recently, I'm aware of how chronic illness can sap one's spirit. For these reasons, I am especially grateful for the ways our parishes seek to make it easier for all people to access their community's place of worship.

May God bless all of you and your families. Each day, I remember you and your intentions before the Lord; please remember me in your own prayers.

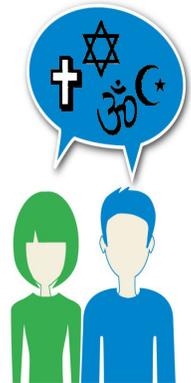

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Francis Cardinal George, O.M.I.
Archbishop of Chicago
