From the Pastor

THE DAY AFTER CHRISTMAS:
"Boxing Day"

I strive to avoid the understandable melancholy of December 26. It's the "morning after"- - the hangover after the great feast. For me, the day after Christmas has always had a gray filter. Perhaps it's all those empty boxes, crumpled wrapping paper and discarded Christmas trees waiting in the gutter for their "final solution." It is a "mood indigo" like the one I've just described that probably inspired English poet, W.H. Auden, to write For the Time Being: A Christmas Oratorio. Though Auden composed his long poem in 1945, its contrast of the Nativity of Our Lord with contemporary attitudes is still as fresh as it is disturbing. The final speech by the narrator of the poem has been described as the modern "crisis of faith and brotherly love." It is all so matter of fact. Yet it echoes a popular cry — an impasse between boredom and quiet desperation."

*Well, so that is that. Now we must dismantle the tree, Putting the decorations back into their cardboard boxes- -
Some have got broken- - and carrying them to the attic.
The holly and the mistletoe must be taken down and burnt,,
And the children got ready for school.
There are enough
Leftovers to do, warmed up, for the rest of the week- -
Not that we have much appetite,
having drunk such a lot,
Stayed up so late, attempted - - quite unsuccessfully- - To love all of our relatives and, in* *general,

Grossly overestimated our powers.*

Auden's "lament" seems most incurable when it becomes epilogue. Auden succeeds in showing what has been missed. It is the Magnum Mysterium, the Great Mystery, itself. The Lord's Nativity, His Incarnation, is the ever-ready remedy for what ails our contemporary celebration of the Christmas Season.

We need to return to the "happy traditions" of the Christmas Season. I emphasize season because Christmas begins a season of light and grace. Returning to W. H. Auden- - he had a prophetic message to his own British Christian people. In the face of wonderful traditions and customs that extend Christmastide, it is nonetheless a "battle" to know our heritage and share it enthusiastically with the young. There are, in Britain, the United States and Canada opposing voices and secular forces that compete with and often reject the ongoing "spirit" Christmas. How refreshing it is to run "counterclockwise" in the mad cuckoo clock of our secularized society.

How delightful it is to "restore" the feasts of ancestors. I highly recommend a simple book, A Yearbook of Seasons and Celebrations by a Catholic writer, broadcaster, and journalist, Joanna Bogle. Joanna and her husband, James, are regulars on EWTN. While I never grew up with the celebration of "Boxing Day," I thought it most interesting that this legal holiday in Britain began as a charitable outreach to the poor. The "boxes" in question were alms boxes that were opened and distributed to the needy on the Feast of St. Stephen (December 26). The tradition grew to include "boxes" or gifts to servants, dustmen, postmen, etc. Apprentices, assistants, and eventually even children might also take up a kind of collection from employers or those deemed to be their "betters."

There is a warm, family spirit on "Boxing Day." The leftovers of goose, turkey, or ham accompany a uniquely British "mash" called "Bubble and Squeak." Sounds dreadful, but it is actually quite tasty! The popular British comedy series called Two Fat Ladies demonstrated how to make "Bubble and Squeak" even for very discriminating plates -- the priests of Westminster Cathedral!

May I say this at the risk of being repetitious?

CHRISTMAS ISN'T OVER! IT'S JUST BEGUN. CELEBRATE THE SEASON. IT WON'T BE OVER UNTIL THE TWO FAT LADIES MAKE YOU WANT TO TRY THEIR "BUBBLE AND SQUEAK."

- Fr. Luczak

BUBBLE AND SQUEAK (Two Fat Ladies)
 Serving Size : 1 Preparation Time :0:00
 Amount Measure Ingredient -- Preparation Method
 1 pound cold potatoes
 2 ounces dripping or lard
 1 onion finely chopped
 8 ounces cooked cabbage or sprouts -- chopped
 Salt
 Black pepper -- freshly ground

Finely chop the potatoes and crush slightly. In a frying pan melt half the fat and lightly fry the onion. Mix in the potato and greens and season well. Add more dripping or lard. Press the bubble into the hot fat and fry over a moderate heat until browned underneath. Turn the bubble over, add the last of the fat and fry until the other side is browned.

Financial Update

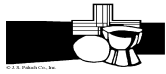

Our collection last Sunday fell short of our budget target by $1,564. This leaves us $5,669 behind our Sunday collection goal for the year.

We wish to express our thanks to all parishioners who continue to give of their time, talent and treasure in support of the Parish.

SPIRITUAL LIFE

WELCOME HOME

To those who are returning to the practice of their Catholic faith or are considering a return we extend our warm welcome! If there is any way we can be of assistance to you, please contact Deacon Paul Stanton, 847/691-8992, or Dee Stanton, 847/966-1180.

TIMES

Lord Jesus, you were the bond of unity and exemplar of love in the Holy Family of Nazareth. Help us to love one another as family and bind us to one another in mutual love, respect and cooperation. May we share your peace and joy with all whom we serve. Amen.

EVANGELIZATION THROUGH TV ADS

Evangelization has always been the mission of the Catholic Church. The call to evangelize first given to us by Christ requires that we proclaim the word of God using every means of communication. In the Church today using the media has become indispensable in bringing the Gospel message into the world through the internet, radio, and television.

In 2009 Cardinal George collaborated with the Bishops in the Dioceses of Rockford and Joliet on an evangelization initiative using television advertisements. Catholics Come Home Chicago gave us ads in three languages broadcast on 10 networks that invited Catholics who had drifted from the practice of the faith to come home. Over 70% of the parishes responding to a survey on the initiative felt it has been a benefit to their parish in several ways – increase in Mass attendance, more people participating in the Sacrament of Reconciliation, a renewed sense of Catholic identity in active parishioners, etc. While we have experienced a period of growth in number and strength, we know that the continuation of this work is the responsibility of every person in the parish.

This year there are Catholics Come Home ads on TV from now to mid-January. Once again, the ads will become a catalyst for faith conversations and moments of evangelization in homes, schools, neighborhoods and places of business around the Archdiocese. Here at St. Isaac Jogues we are asking you to pray for those who have been away to consider the invitation to come home, to invite family members, friends or neighbors to join you for Mass at Christmas, to give them some of the information that is available at the Welcome Table in the Holy Family Room, or that can be found in the pamphlet rack by the parking lot door (near the Ushers Room) and to accompany them to parish events. More information about this evangelization effort can be found on their website: WWW.CatholicsComeHomeCHICAGO.org

MISSION TRIP SUPPORT

Christopher Dexter is a Sophomore at Loras College in Dubuque, IA, and is participating in a service trip once again to New Orleans the week of January 22-28, through the college's Campus Ministry. They will be working with the Phoenix of New Orleans Foundation (PNOLA) to help rebuild houses that are still ruined from Hurricane Katrina.

Chris and his family are parishioners for many years and are active in various liturgical ministries. Chris writes, "I am participating in this trip again because I really fell in love with New Orleans last year and the trip had a huge impact on my life. It really showed me how a city can work together and not give up hope after they had a major disaster hit their city. I was fortunate enough to receive another opportunity to participate on this trip and I wouldn't miss it for the world. I hope to gain the same kind of things I did last year and learn even more about the city and the people that live there."

Your prayers for Chris and this mission trip will be greatly appreciated. If you would also like to support Chris and the trip with a monetary donation (for travel and building supplies), please send it to Dee Stanton at the Religious Education Office by January 12th. Checks should be made payable to the parish and we will then send one total check. Thank you for your consideration and continued encouragement of our young adults as they serve others.

SOLEMNITY OF MARY MOTHER OF GOD MASSES

Masses for the Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God, which is a holy day but not of obligation, will be on Friday, December 31st, at 5 p.m. and on Saturday, January 1st, at 9 a.m.

EPIPHANY WEEKEND

Epiphany Weekend is January 1-2 and the regular weekend Mass schedule will be followed. Parishioners are encouraged to wear traditional dress of their native countries or the colors of their cultures as we celebrate Christ's manifestation to the world through the presence of the Magi.

Following the Christmas Concert next Sunday, January 2, there will be a reception in the Holy Family Room. You are invited to bring some of your traditional Christmas treats to be enjoyed by others. If you are willing to help serve and clean up at the reception, please call the RE Office this week, 847/966-1180. Your help will be appreciated.

HUMAN CONCERNS

Preparing the Spirit for Christmas
Keeping a Spiritual Journal

As we have walked the Advent path these past weeks, we have been preparing not only for the secular celebration of the season, but also for the religious holyday on which we commemorate Christ's birth. Although our journey concludes at week's end, anticipation of His coming again in glory continues. As a way of being ready each day – for we neither know the hour or the day – I offer this spiritual practice. It comes from a program called Experiencing God.

Many people journal – to record significant events, work through difficulties & release emotions. "Keeping a spiritual journal will help [one] remember the important things God says...and the things He does in your life." You may use the following questions as a guide for each day's writing or tool for reflecting upon a week of entries. Remember nourishing the spirit can make a body well!

- What has God revealed about Himself?
- What has God revealed about His purposes?
- What has God revealed about His ways?
- What has God done that caused you to experience His presence?
- What Scripture has God used to speak about Himself, His purposes, or His ways?
- What particular person or concern has God given you to pray for?
- What has God done that has given you a sense of His timing or direction concerning any aspect of His will?
- What word of guidance or truth may God have spoken to you through another?
- What adjustment is God leading you to make in your life?

What acts of obedience do you know God wants you to take?

Merry Christmas!

Pat Kellen, Parish Nurse, Advocate Health Care/ St. Isaac Jogues

Living Well in the New Year

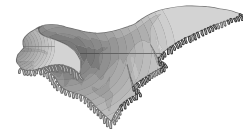

Many people begin the New Year with resolutions to behave differently in order to be healthier, happier, etc. Here are some thoughts from Wheat Ridge Ministries which I've taken from their "card" titled Celebrate Living Well...in the Lord!

- L Listen to the Lord! Let Him do the talking.
- I Intentionally celebrate life! Go and do the good that God is calling you to do!
- V Volunteer! Share your talents – reach out and bless the life of another.
- I Invest in yourself. God declares you precious in His sight! Take care of yourself!
- N Notice God's gifts around you. Rejoice in His creation!
- G Grow spiritually! Find a quiet place to reflect and meditate each day.
- W Walk regularly. The best exercise is to walk with the Lord each day!
- E Eat sensibly. Watch for the fat calories. Enjoy a healthy diet with lots of fruits and veggies!
- L Lift people up – through prayer, by saying "thanks," by smiling!
- L Lighten up! Laugh at yourself; trust the Lord. He's in control!

Happy New Year!

Pat Kellen, Parish Nurse, Advocate Health Care/ St. Isaac Jogues

HOLY HOUR
THURSDAY EVENINGS
7:00—8:00 p.m.

Come Home

Take me
Home
Sweet Home
Where I belong
To You
And
You, to me

That's where
No longer can I
Feel shame
For
Who I am
And Who I was

With You
Leading the way
I can dream
Like an angel
Wake the dawn
Walk the talk
Rest, at last, in peace

Stars of Glory

The music ministry of St. Isaac Jogues, under the direction of Lisa Hall and joined by guest violinist Linda Veleckis, will present a concert of holiday music on Sunday, January 2 at 3:00 p.m. in the church. Our adult choir, youth choir and cantor ensemble will provide you with an entertaining and joyous afternoon of music and laughter. After the rush of preparations, sit back and let the peace of the Christmas season and its music surround you.

Prayer for the New Year

O God of new beginnings and wonderful surprises thank you for the gift of a new year. May it be a time of grace for me, a time to grow in faith and love, a time to renew my commitment to following Your Son, Jesus. May it be a year of blessing for me, a time to cherish my family and friends, a time to renew my efforts at work, a time to embrace my faith more fully. Walk with me, please, in every day and every hour of this new year, that the light of Christ might shine through me, in spite of my weaknesses and failings. Above all, may I remember this year that I am a pilgrim on the sacred path to You. Amen

However good or bad a situation is,
it will change.

We REALLY need Bingo Workers!

We have a long history of Friday night Bingo at St. Isaac Jogues. In order to continue this Friday night tradition of service, support and fund we need volunteers.

We have a critical need in the following areas.

Kitchen

The kitchen sells comfort food for our patrons. We offer Sloppy Joes, Tuna Salad, Grilled Cheese and Hot Dogs along with fresh Pop Corn and candy bars. The Kitchen is open from 5:30 to approximately 7:30. Preparation begins between 4:00 and 4:30. We need two volunteers to man the kitchen each week. The goal is to have 8 to 12 individuals who would rotate responsibility.

Bingo Games

The doors for Bingo open at 5:30. Our goal is to have four teams each consisting of five to six workers. The teams are made up of a Leader who oversees operations; a Caller who runs each game; three Floor Walkers who sell Bingo cards and verify winning cards; and a Cashier. We are extremely short of help in this area, particularly on the third week of each month. We need 10 to 12 volunteers to man this operation.

Cashiers

The Cashier is responsible for recording the number of winners and the payout for each game. Recording receipts, disbursing cash to pay game winners, preparing the summary of the night's results and of course preparing bank deposits

LEARNED AT HOME

The mind of Christ is to be learned in the family. Strength of character may be acquired at work, but beauty of character is learned at home.

-Henry Drummond

Processions

Why does the liturgy begin with a procession? It is not just a practical matter of getting the ministers of the liturgy from the sacristy to the sanctuary. The procession is a powerful sign of who we are as Christian people. We are not static, staying in one place. We are going somewhere. Our procession leads us to the altar, sign of Christ's presence in our midst. We move, we process, because we recognize our need for what Christ is preparing for us at that table. We go forward eagerly, because we are hungry for that heavenly food. This procession is an orderly one: servers, deacon, priest presider. Each is set apart by distinctive vesture: albs for the altar servers, dalmatic for the deacon, chasuble for the priest. The procession is an image of the hierarchical structure of the Church. On a deeper level it is an image of unity in diversity. We are all on a journey to the heavenly city, but each of us is clothed with different gifts. We all receive the call to service, but not in the same way. Only by coming together in all our wonderful variety can we achieve the work of the kingdom.

ADDING NAMES TO THE PARISH SICK LIST

It has always been the policy of St. Isaac Jogues to offer our parish community an opportunity to pray for those parishioners who are ill and in need of our prayers. We have tried to keep close track of these names for our Bulletin as they are made available to us.

However, now we face an important privacy issue, very much like the issues faced by hospitals, health institutions, and certainly by other parishes.

We cannot (by law) publicly let our parish community know the health status of any of our members without their permission.

We appreciate the fact that often friends, neighbors, and acquaintances wish to do something special for a person who is ill, and ask to place their name on the list to be prayed for. While their intentions are surely good, we simply can no longer accept names in this manner.

We will institute a new process regarding calling in names for the Bulletin list.

Names for the sick list placed in the Bulletin have to be called in by the person who is ill, or by a member of their family. At the time they call in the name, they will be asked whether they are the sick person him/ herself, or a member of their family, and if they give permission for the name to be placed on the list. They will be asked for the correct spelling of the sick person’s name. If a family member, they will be required to give their name for our records.

Thank you for your patience regarding this new process. We wish to do all we can to offer our parish community the opportunity to offer prayers for those who are ill — but we must also be cognizant of the fact that all members of our congregation are entitled to their privacy in this regard.
