HOLY FAMILY OF JESUS, MARY & JOSEPH
DECEMBER 28, 2014

CHRISTMAS POSTSCRIPTS:

Somewhere Between Laud and Lamentation

I am still celebrating Christmas and intend to do so merrily until the Sunday following Epiphany. And I would like to stretch beyond new Catholic correctness to the older custom of ending the Season on Candlemas (Feb. 2). The great "Holiday" rush is over, but Christmas continues. If that makes me a grumpy old man, I am in the best of company! The great Catholic curmudgeon Hilaire Belloc was known to send Christmas cards with this far from jolly jingle:

"May all my enemies go to hell, Noel, Noel!"

G. K. Chesterton who was truly jolly most of the time and loved Christmas dearly was acid-tongued about those who celebrate it prematurely. He growled:

"There is no more dangerous or disgusting habit than that of celebrating Christmas before it comes."

But of all the grumpy Christian gentlemen who lament the passing of Christmas none did it better than the great modern English poet, W. H. Auden. Auden was a complex, occasionally besotted, genius. He was a serious Anglican. In 1945 he published For the Time Being: A Christmas Oratorio. It is a brilliant study in contrast comparing the Nativity with contemporary attitudes. Christmas becomes a "stage" for the modern crisis of faith and futile attempts to love our neighbor. Toward the end of his poem, Auden's narrator gets to the "bottom" of it all.

*tree, putting the decorations back into their cardboard boxes
Some have got broken - - - and carrying them up to the attic.
The holly and the mistletoe must be taken down and burnt,
And the children got ready for school.
There are enough leftovers to do, warmed up, for the rest of the week - -
Not that we have much appetite,
Having drunk such a lot,
Stayed up so late, attempted - - quite unsuccessfully - -*

To love all our relatives and, in general grossly overestimated our powers.

More than a little depressing is Auden, but "in vino veritas" . . .

His lament comes honestly to one who celebrates Christmas not wisely, but too well. Auden and all grumpy Christian gentlemen and ladies really yearn for MORE . . . more true Christmas spirit, more real peace on earth, good will toward all!

The best postscript to Christmas is neither an encomium nor a dirge. It is the most hopeful phrase in poetry or prose - - TO BE CONTINUED!

-Fr. Luczak

YEAR OF SACRAMENTS • ONE WORD AT A TIME

Nod

©Shutterstock

If we speak and our listener nods her head, we know that she has accepted what we say. We know that there is agreement.

At the heart of the story of Advent and Christmas, we know that we are called to nod to God's Word. God would not enter this world unwelcomed. God looks for our nod. And so, the Blessed Virgin Mary stands for all humanity and nods to the Lord, "Let it be done to me according to your word." Then the Word becomes flesh and dwells among us.

We believe that the sacraments bring us the presence of the living Christ. And we also believe that his presence is never imposed. As we receive the sacraments, the Lord looks for us to nod to him and to welcome his sacramental presence with hearts full of faith.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

In the last century, a few new feasts were blended into the Church year, including today's. After World War I, the chaos of daily life in Europe made its impact felt on the family structure. Partly to offer Christians an image of hope and holiness in married family life, and also to promote the welfare of children, today's feast was "invented" in 1921. In 1969, it became a feast of Christmas.

The prayers today remind us not only of family life, but of life in the community of faith. We ponder the mystery of a God who loves us dearly enough to embrace the struggles, joys, and daily sorrows of family life. The message of Christmas shines through: God-with-us is available to us in the ordinary patterns of our lives and commitments. The lives of people who raise their children in difficult circumstances, and of people who remain faithful to life in the Church in spite of some of their own family struggles, occupy a special place in our hearts today in prayer.

FRIDAY NIGHT AT THE MOVIES

The 2015 season of great movies is on the horizon. A whole new year of quality movies are being planned for you every second Friday of the month. Of course, there's no charge for the film nor the popcorn and beverages. Come join us. All are welcome. Bring your friends.

We're beginning the 2015 season with a masterpiece from director Terrence Mallick, "The Tree of Life" starring Brad Pitt, Sean Penn and Jessica Chastain. It will be on Friday, Jan. 9th, at 7 p.m. in the Church Hall. Doors open at 6:30 p.m. The film has been called "visual poetry" and indeed it is. It's about a family in Texas in the 50's who go through the struggles and joys of life as we do. What makes this film special are the visuals and heart-rending emotions. You will identify with the characters easily and also the things they face. Come see this beautiful masterpiece.

THANK YOU!

The coat drive was a huge success! 45 large bags of coats were collected and donated to Cornerstone Outreach.

The SIJ Women's Club says thank you to all who donated and to all who helped!

CHRISTMAS CORNER

Pope Francis has asked all Catholics worldwide to use the months ahead as a time of preparation & prayer for the World Meeting of Families to be held in Philadelphia, September, 2015. Pope Francis prayed: "Let every family be a welcoming place of goodness and peace for children and the elderly, for the sick and the lonely, for the poor and the needy." Pope Francis also asks all families to enrich and energize family life by praying the "World Meeting of Families Prayer" each day for their own family's personal intentions.

World Meeting of Families Prayer

God and Father of us all,
in Jesus, your Son and our Savior,
you have made us
your sons and daughters
in the family of the Church.
May your grace and love help our families in every part of the world be united to one another in fidelity to the Gospel.

May the example of the Holy Family,
with the aid of Your Holy Spirit, guide all families, especially those most troubled, to be homes of communion and prayer and to always seek Your truth and live in Your love.
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Jesus, Mary and Joseph,
pray for us!

YEAR OF SACRAMENTS • ONE WORD AT A TIME

Cry

Infants cry. We all know it. In their vulnerability, they let us know that they need nourishment or need to be held. We know that this is true of the newborn Jesus. The Eternal Word made flesh shares the human vulnerability of every other infant on earth. And this infant vulnerability—their need and their smallness—draws us close to them.

We may grow up, but we never leave behind our fundamental vulnerability. In different ways, we continue to cry for sustenance, for mercy, for strength, for healing, and for connection and communion. In our vulnerability, God draws close to us, as Scripture says, with bands of love. When our deepest needs and vulnerabilities prompt us to cry, the Lord draws us to himself through sacramental signs and rituals. He hears our every cry, and the sacraments of the Church tell us that this is true.
